
College of Humanities
Curriculum Committee
Thursday, February 3, 2005, 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
105A Brown Hall

Agenda

OLD BUSINESS (Items distributed prior to the last meeting):

Proposal to create a new undergraduate B.A. major in World Literatures
Comparative Studies 273, course change request (title change)
Comparative Studies 573, new course request (World Literature: Theory and Practice)

African-American and African Studies 691, course change request
Change to number, title, level, prerequisites, and description
African-American and African Studies 690, course change request
Change to number, title, level, prerequisites, and description
African-American and African Studies 101, course change request
Change to number and description

African-American and African Studies 705.03, new course request
Graduate Seminar in West African Society and Culture
African-American and African Studies 705.04, new course request
Study Abroad to Western Africa

NEW BUSINESS:

Comparative Studies 276, new course request
Introduction to the Study of Sexuality
To be included as a core course on the Sexuality Studies minor, and for inclusion in the GEC under Cultures and Ideas and Social Diversity

College consideration of the course changes to the organic chemistry lab curriculum
Request for college concurrence