

Agenda

From the previous meeting: Psychology 646 (was 546)

Psychology of Asian-Americans: Children, Youth, and Families

Note: Non-concurrence from Sociology (included in the packet)

Economics 556, course change request

To create an honors version of Cooperation and Conflict in the Global Economy

Note: This course is cross-listed with International Studies, and both courses have been approved by Honors.

Anthropology 400, new course request

Contemporary Views of the Ancient Near East: Orientalism, Archeology, and Nationalism

Note: This course was previously proposed as Anthro 597.05, but has stalled in the GEC subcommittee that vets Contemporary World courses.

Public Policy and Management 670, new course request

Rebuilding Failed and Weak States

Note: This course is cross-listed with International Studies.

Concurrence has been sent to Political Science and History

Revision to the Communication major

Courses included in the packet for review:

Communication 421.01, course change request to 421

Communication 422, new course request

Communication 423, new course request

Communication 421.01, course withdrawal request

Communication 421.02, course withdrawal request

Communication 421.03, course withdrawal request

Communication 605, new course request

Communication 653, new course request

Communication 655, new course request

Communication 656, new course request

Communication 657, new course request

Communication 690, new course request

Other courses that I will bring one copy of to the meeting (previously approved):

Communication 322, 424, 502, 638, 645

One copy of the current course descriptions and the current undergraduate focus area requirements will also be brought to the meeting

