Program Change: Online MA Program in Art Education

Dear ASC Curriculum Committee,

I am writing to request a change in our current plan of study for the Online MA in Art Education.

ARTEDUC 6998 is currently a required course in the Online MA Program, as well as on-campus Art Education master's students completing the non-thesis project option. The Online MA Program in AAEP is taken mostly by practicing K-12 art teachers, museum educators, and community arts educators who are interested in further developing their teaching practices through continued study. We would like to continue offering this course as a required course, but change the name and number to ARTEDUC 6000 (Reflective Practice, Research, and Portfolio). This name change mirrors our distinction that this course is designed specifically for the online students to develop their Final Reflective Practice Portfolio through a series of credit hours with instructor-led curricular content, which is different than the on-campus non-thesis research hours. Changing this name will designate that the content and mode of delivery (online course) are different than our existing ARTEDUC 6998 courses.

Our current requested changes to the plan of study include:

- 1) Adding ARTEDUC 6000: Reflective Practice, Research, and Portfolio to our existing plan of study (6 credit hours).
- 2) Removing ARTEDUC 6998 from our existing plan of study (6 credit hours).

This change to the plan of study will help to clarify the expectations for and purpose of the course.

Respectfully Submitted,

J.T. Richardson
