

11.03.25

Greetings,

The School of Music would like to substitute a course in the Choral and General Music Education degree programs. MUSIC 5415 will be replaced by MUSIC 2413 in these degree programs.

There will be no gain or loss of credit hours in the programs with this substitution.
This change can take place in SP26 term with no impact to students.

The vocal faculty has requested this change because the format for MUSIC 5415 (with multiple languages taught over a short period of time) doesn't allow for the students to actually learn and practice the materials, and having a more refined look at IPA, English, and Italian (through MUSIC 2413) will provide a better opportunity to learn and use the International Phonetic Alphabet, which in turn better equips them when they are singing in other languages and using transliterated resources.

Please contact me with questions.

Thank you,

David M. Hedgecoth, PhD
