General Course Information Statement

This course is a prerequisite to entry into the Sociology and Criminology and Criminal Justice Studies major programs. The Columbus campus offers an H101 version of this course, but the regional courses are generally unable to offer honors coursework because they do not have a sufficient number of honors students on campus to fill those courses.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

This proposal does not require any adjustments to programs nor does it require new funding.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests?  Yes  No

Describe any changes in library, equipment, or teaching aids needed

There are no changes required.

Purpose of the proposed change

The purpose of this request is to propose creation of an embedded honors experience in a 101 course offering on the Mansfield regional campus . This will allow honors students at that campus to receive honors programming within the context of a standard 101 offering. Terri Winnick is a tenured Associate Professor on that campus and will be the instructor that offers the proposed HE 101 course.

 Proposed change impacts course contents?

Describe the method of funding if the proposed changes involves budgetary adjustments

there are no budgetary adjustments required
