1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

This course is the one foundation course for a new, interdisciplinary M.A. program in East Asian Studies approved by the University and the Board of Regents in May, 2005. It provides an essential introduction to the field of East Asian Studies and its relationship to other political and intellectual forces impinging on the field.

2. List Major/Minor affected by the creation of this new course. Attach revisions of all affected programs. This course is (check one) Required Elective Other (Explain)

3. Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course.
 No added funding is needed; faculty come from the cooperating departments and credit for teaching the course will be assigned to the department of the instructor. No courses are being withdrawn in order to add this class

4. Is the approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course requests or curricular requests?

Yes No List: This course is also being proposed in two other colleges, but acceptance there is not essential for us to go ahead and offer this class.

5. If this course is part of a sequence, list the number of the other course(s) in the sequence: N/A

6. Expected section size: 15 Proposed number of sections per year: 1-2

7. Do you want prerequisites enforced electronically (see OAA manual for what can be enforced)? Yes

8. This course has been discussed with and has the concurrence of the following academic units needing this course or with academic units having directly related interests (List units and attach letters and/or forms):
 Not Applicable

East Asian Languages & Literatures, History of Art

9. Attach a course syllabus that includes a topical outline of the course, student learning outcomes and/or course objectives, off-campus field experience, methods of evaluation, and other items as stated in the OAA curriculum manual.

Approval Process The signatures or actions on the lines in ALL CAPS (e.g. ACADEMIC UNIT) are required.
