An academic unit initiating a request should complete Section A of this form and send a copy of the form, course request, and syllabus to each of the academic units that might have related interests in the course. Initiating units should be allowed two weeks for responses.

Re: Concurrence for NELC

Hebrew 345: "Art and Ancient Judaism" has been reviewed by the members of the History of Art Curriculum Committee who have endorsed a departmental concurrence for the proposed course at this time. Our decision is largely based on the grounds that it is, in fact, part of a planned Cluster, which includes History of Art 301: "Christian Art." We offer our concurrence with one proviso, however: should it be possible in the future for the department to offer a similar course, our current approval should not preclude that possibility.
