1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

an overwhelmingly large portion of activities a foreign language learner encounters in the target culture is unscripted spoken discourse. Learners possess true advanced level skills must be able to follow unscripted discussions by professionals on topics of the related domains. Most currently available courses focus on the study of printed materials (fictions, essays, commentaries) and/or scripted audio materials (dialogues and narratives from movies as well as news broadcast from television and/or radio). It's time for us to bring unscripted spoken discourse
