State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

The course offers valuable knowledge and skills to students that fit exceedingly well into the undergraduate WS curriculum. The readings and discussions allow students to apply feminist analyses to their experiences and observations of women lawmakers' leadership and involvement in policy making. The internship also provide important contacts and potential job opportunities for the students.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

This course will be taught by existing Women's Studies faculty and will be integrated into existing teaching assignments.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests?  Yes  No
