1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

The goal of training advanced level foreign language learners is to enable them to do things at professional level in the target culture. Being able to establish functional interpersonal relations and to develop professional networks is essential to this goal. To properly establish oneself in a foreign culture involves much more than just getting the foreign language and cultural codes right; it requires the skill to perform in certain ways that are in accordance with the terms embedded in that culture. To acquire this skill, the learner needs to study the behavior patterns of the target culture and to practice accordingly. This course provides opportunities and contexts to do just that.
