1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

This course is foreseen in the proposal for a Major in Film Studies. While two existing courses (HA 650; Ger 671) touch on this important moment in which mass culture and mass media are developing, none integrates the demanding intellectual debates that accompany it. An Honors course is the optimal place to investigate this topic, which lays the foundation for the theory and practices of the visual culture in which our students are submerged today.

2. List Major/Minor affected by the creation of this new course. Attach revisions of all affected programs. This course is (check one) Required Elective Other (Explain) :

Eligible for Film Studies Major / Minor; Honors credit; German Major elective

3. Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course.

As per the major proposal, this is one of three new courses to be proposed in 2005-06 for the new Program in Film Studies. It requires no new funding.

4. Is the approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course requests or curricular requests?

Yes No ;however, this course is intimately linked to the proposed major in Film Studies.

5. If this course is part of a sequence, list the number of the other course(s) in the sequence: _____

6. Expected section size: 10-15 Proposed number of sections per year: 1

7. Do you want prerequisites enforced electronically (see OAA manual for what can be enforced)? Yes

8. This course has been discussed with and has the concurrence of the following academic units needing this course or with academic units having directly related interests (List units and attach letters and/or forms):

Not Applicable

Concurrence from History of Art; Concurrence & request for cross-listing from Germanic L&L

9. Attach a course syllabus that includes a topical outline of the course, student learning outcomes and/or course objectives, off-campus field experience, methods of evaluation, and other items as stated in the OAA curriculum manual.
