

Biographical Statement for Religious Pathways Class

Rev. Jonathan Weyer is ordained in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church and is currently a campus minister at Ohio State. He received his Masters of Divinity at Covenant Theological Seminary graduating cum laude. Rev. Weyer has ten years of ministry experience that includes pastoring two churches, teaching college classes at a university in St. Louis, Missouri and working as an assistant pastor at Grace Central Church in Columbus, Ohio. His current ministry at Ohio State involves training students for ministry and dialogue with the atheists group on campus on the issues that separate Christians and nonbelievers.