State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

As an interdisciplinary course, 597.03 is designed to attract students from a variety of majors across different colleges, representing diverse disciplinary perspectives, emphasizing the reciprocal relationship between global and local environmental processes and policies, and stressing the importance of sound research and effective communication to the practice of full environmental citizenship.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

The Department of English approved English 597.03 on February 13, 2009 for implementation by allocation of existing resources.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests? Yes No
