Dear Dr. Mughan,

The proposed course "Bioterrorism: Past, Present, & Future" co-listed with International Studies fills a critical gap in our curriculum. The multidisciplinary course will be attractive to students in a wide variety of majors and interests in homeland security. We therefore strongly support this initiative.

Sincerely,

Terry L. Graham

Dear Chuck,

This letter reiterates International Studies' enthusiastic support for, and endorsement of, our jointly listed course, Plant Pathology/International Studies 455: "Bioterrorism: Past, Present, & Future". This course is a valuable addition to our respective curriculums and will fill a big gap in the University's undergraduate course offerings.

Thank you for your cooperation in making this course possible.

Best wishes,

Anthony Mughan
Director, International Studies &
Professor, Political Science

Dear Dr. Curtis:

The proposed course on Bioterrorism will indeed fill a gap in the curriculum. It will be extremely useful for students in a variety of disciplines. I do not see any conflict between the proposed course and other available courses and our group is fully supportive of this initiative.

Best regards.

Sincerely

Dear Chuck:

Thank you for the opportunity to review your proposed course Plant Pathology <sup>455</sup>~~355~~, Bioterrorism: An Overview. The graduate studies committee in public health has discussed the course and is happy to support it. We believe that this will be a very useful new offering, and may actually work well as an elective in our proposed minor in public health. We appreciate your attempts to be collaborative, and look forward to working with you in the future.

Best wishes,
Jeff

Dear Professor Curtis:

As Chair of our Academic Affairs Committee, I have reviewed your proposal for a new course, 'Bioterrorism: Past, Present, and Future'. I have also asked the other members of our academic affairs committee to review the materials you provided. I am pleased to provide our Department of Animal Sciences concurrence letter supporting this course. The topic is important to our students. You have provided details which demonstrate a course which will enhance our students' knowledge and understanding of bioterrorism. Thank you for the opportunity to review the materials.

Sincerely,

Keith M. Irvin

The Ohio State University
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences Concurrence Form

The purpose of this form is to provide a simple system of obtaining departmental reactions to proposed new courses, group studies, study tours, workshop requests, and course changes. A letter may be substituted for this form.

Academic units initiating a request which requires such a reaction should complete Section A of this form and send a copy of the form, course request, and syllabus to each of the academic units that might have related interests in the course. Initiating units should allow at least two weeks for responses.

Academic units receiving this form should respond to Section B and return the form to the initiating unit. Overlap of course content and other problems should be resolved by the academic units before forwarding this form and all other accompanying documentation to the Office of Academic Affairs.
