State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

Currently there are no other courses on comparative migration in domestic or international forms. This course is aimed at students who are looking to be challenged in a 300-level course that will fulfill either a History or Women's Studies major or minor requirement or the GEC requirements listed above.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

Class is being funded by an Honors & Scholars grant, which will allow two faculty in History/Women's Studies to co-teach the course.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests? Yes No
