State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

Georgian 101 aims to develop students' skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and to help students develop an understanding of other cultures and patterns of thought. Throughout the language sequence, students will develop the skills necessary to interact in Georgian and to learn about contemporary Georgian culture and society.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

This course is one of the six courses requested to advance Georgian language study at OSU. This course will be externally funded by the Center for Slavic and East European Studies during its implementation.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests? Yes No
