State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

In this course, students interested in human and animal interactions become citizens of the world and expand their understanding of the role that animals play in shaping society, culture, and the economic environment. Students will recognize the role of diversity in shaping their own attitudes and values as global citizens.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

No new funding required. This course will be offered alternate years with ANIM SCI 697.05.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests?  Yes  No

Please complete and attach the form(s) on the following page before completing the package.
