A General Elective

State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

AAAS 201 provides the opportunity for students to explore important themes and perspectives about people of African descent globally. Selected texts represent a broad range of subjects that define the core interdisciplinary focus of African American and African Studies. Students will also receive an enhanced understanding of the pluralistic nature of institutions, society and culture in the U.S.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.
