

The Ohio State University
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences Program Concurrence Form

The purpose of this form is to provide a simple system of obtaining departmental and college reactions to proposed development of and changes to academic programs. A letter may be substituted for this form.

Academic units initiating a request which requires such a reaction should complete Section A of this form and send a copy of the form and the programmatic proposal to each of the academic units that might have related interests in the program. Initiating units should allow at least two weeks for responses.

Academic units receiving this form should respond to Section B and return the form to the initiating unit. Overlap of course content and other problems should be resolved by the academic units before forwarding this form and all other accompanying documentation to the College of the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Office.

*Important Note: the concurrence sought is for the proposed program and the new course SBS 591 "Capstone Course in Public Policy."

Dear Professor Haurin:

I am pleased to express my support for the proposed Minor in Public Policy: Social and Behavioral Science Perspective as revised on December 15, 2005.

This new minor will be a significant addition to the educational options for undergraduate students here at Ohio State. There are policy implications to the substance of disciplinary programs of study in the social, physical, and biological sciences on this campus. The proposed minor will enable some students to bring those policy insights explicitly into their academic training. Thus the minor is by nature multi-disciplinary, and the mix of courses available will facilitate both breadth and focus. Participation by the School of Public Policy and Management in the minor strengthens that multi-disciplinarity.

Several of the John Glenn Institute programs can support the minor, and we look forward to doing so.

Sincerely

Lawrence W. Libby
Interim Director

Don,
AEDE is delighted to concur with the proposed Public Policy minor, which we believe meets an important need for undergraduate students interested in public policy. We are pleased to contribute several of our courses to this minor, and we are very supportive of this proposal.

All the best ...
Alan

Alan,

We now have concurrences from the Glenn Institute, Public Policy and Management, and Natural Resources. Could you email your final concurrence asap? We adopted your suggestions as noted below. An email would be fine.

Thanks.

Hi Don -

The Academic Affairs Committee of the School of Resources has discussed your proposed minor in Public Policy and has voted to support its creation. The Committee does suggest, however, that you add another specialization area in Natural Resources and Environmental Policy that might include NR 203,400, 540, 642, 647, 650, 736 and 752. If you choose to include the suggested area, please feel free to contact Tom Koontz at koontz.31, the faculty member who suggested the addition.

We wish you the best with your minor.
