Hi Bernadette,

If it gets approved, we can ask our contact who works with the degree audits to program the audits to accept the course for the social diversity requirement effective AU09, so that shouldn't be a problem at all. I can respond directly to her if that's easier (in case she has any additional questions...). Thanks!

M.E.

Hi Mary Ellen,

In October 2009, Professor Fernandez (History) submitted a course change to add social diversity (U.S.) to History 324. She submitted the paperwork to somebody in History on Oct. 2, but--as has emerged from the exchange of e-mails below--the Dept of History did not act on the request until this week. The course change request is currently in Valarie Williams's office, and we will process the GEC request once it comes to our office.

We are not sure how to answer Lilia Fernandez's question as to whether her Fall 2009 students would be able to have advisors approve this course for Diversity GEC credit (provided, I suppose, that the course gets approved for this category by the appropriate CCI subcommittee). Could you let me know how to answer her question? Or you might like to answer her question directly.

All the best,
Bernadette
