State the need and purpose of the course. Indicate how the course relates to the primary goals of the academic unit/school/college/university.

This course is designed as an introduction to information literacy skills for all science students. It introduces students to the different types of resources commonly used in the sciences, search tools and how to use them, evaluating search results, and searching for interdisciplinary scientific topics.

Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course. Evidence must be given of whether the budget support will come from reallocation of existing resources or from new program funds.

Currently taught as a Group Studies course by existing faculty. Permanent course will continue to be taught by existing faculty.

Is approval of this request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular requests? Yes No
