Hi Bernadette,

There are still a few "issues" with this revision:

1) on the PACER table, the minimum "required credit hours offered by the unit" should be 30, and the maximum "required credit hours offered by the unit" should be 33. They will also need to enter the maximum "required credit hours offered by the unit" under the quarter system.

2) on the List of Semester Courses (p. 9 of the present pdf), LING 4998 is listed as "Honors Research" and LING 4999 is listed as "Honors Thesis". I think these should be listed as the non-Honors versions of those courses, because 4998H and 4999H are now included in this list as Honors Research and Honors Thesis, respectively.

3) the statement that LING 2000 or LING 2000H does not have to be completed before declaring the major has been added to the Semester Advising Sheet for Track A, but has not been added to the Semester Advising Sheet for Track B. I suspect that the same statement should be added to the Semester Advising Sheet for Track B.

Please ask Linguistics to correct these points.

Thanks,
Larry

Larry,

We received a revision for the Linguistics BA (approved by CCI with request for small changes on 1/14). Could you please look over the revisions & give the OK (or not) to send this to the next level?
