Professor Larry Krissek
Chair, Arts and Sciences CCI

Dear Professor Krissek:

At the undergraduate level the Department of Political Science has one major program, the Bachelor of Arts Political Science major. In his cover letter, Department Chair Herb Weisberg mentions the revision of the major two years ago and notes that at this point there is no reason to change the major for the conversion to semesters. As a result the conversion is a straightforward adaption of the quarter version to an isomorphic semester version

The conversion plan was reviewed by me and the Social Sciences Disciplinary Advisory Panel (SS DAP) and we found it to be appropriate for semesters and submit them to you for CCI's consideration.

At the undergraduate level Political Science also has seven minors. In addition to the General Political Science minor, there are six specialized minors:

- A) Campaigns and Elections
- B) Comparative Politics
- C) Judicial Politics
- D) Political Decision Making
- E) Political Theory
- F) World Politics

The General Political Science minor was significantly revised and the six specialized minors were developed during late 2006 and all were approved in Spring, 2008. The semester versions are straight conversions of the relatively new quarter versions. The SS DAP has endorsed the semester versions and I have approved them and submit them for CCI's consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Gene E. Mummy'.

Gene Mumy
ASC/SBS

Dear Gene,

I am writing to convey the Political Science degree programs for the semester conversion process.

We have the following degree programs that we are converting:

B.A. in Political Science

7 minors: Campaigns & Elections; Comparative Politics; Judicial Politics; Political Decision-Making; Political Science; Political Theory; World Politics

Ph.D. in Political Science

M.A. in Political Science

The Department has had on-going review of all of our degree programs in the last few years, including a major revamping of our graduate program, instituting the 6 new focused minors, and then revising our B.A. program. These changes are all very recent, so much so that students enrolling in them have not yet completed their degrees. We are analyzing the effectiveness of some of these changes, but we need to wait for more data on most of them. In any case, the faculty in our several subfields met to discuss how to convert their programs to semesters, our Undergraduate Affairs Committee and Graduate Studies Committee both met to make recommendations about the conversion of our degree programs to semesters, and we considered their recommendations at a meeting of the entire faculty and voted on specifics.

I recommend approval of our conversion proposals.

Sincerely,

Herb Weisberg
Professor and Chair

Letter from Program-offering Unit

August 30, 2010

On behalf of the Department of Political Science, I recommend approval of our conversion proposal from quarters to semesters.

The Department proposal was worked through our regular curriculum process, including our Undergraduate Affairs Committee, our Graduate Studies Committee, meetings of all of our departmental fields, and a general faculty meeting.

Our programs include a BA in Political Science; undergraduate minors in Political Science, Campaigns and Elections, Comparative Politics, Judicial Politics, Political Decision Making, Political Theory, and World Politics; an MA in Political Science; and a PhD in Political Science. We also participate in the Graduate Interdisciplinary Specialization in Survey Research. We are not withdrawing any current program.

Sincerely,

Herb Weisberg
Professor & Chair

PROGRAM TEMPLATE: POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJOR

I. GENERAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

1. Program Name: Campaigns and Elections Minor
2. Degree Title: NA
3. Academic Unit: Department of Political Science
4. Type of Program: Minor
5. Semester Conversion Designation: Conversion to semesters will occur with minimal changes to program goals and curricular requirements.

II. Rationale for proposed program changes:

The Department of Political Science offers a general political science minor, as well as minors focusing on "Campaigns and Elections," "Comparative Politics," "Judicial Politics," "Political Decision Making," "Political Theory," and "World Politics." We have not substantially altered these minors. In every case, we have kept their required courses the same, the number of courses the same [five], and the structure of the minor the same. We have updated course lists to be current and accurate, which was not the case with some of the old minor advising sheets that were available, but otherwise the minors are unchanged.

III. Course List

Polit Sc 4160	Public Opinion
Polit Sc 3100	American Politics and Policy Making
Polit Sc 3115	Introduction to the Policy Process
Polit Sc 3420	Political Theories of Democracy
Polit Sc 4150	American Political Parties
Polit Sc 4152	Campaign Politics
Polit Sc 4164	Political Participation and Voting Behavior
Polit Sc 4420H	Politics and Ethics

IV. Semester Advising Sheet Campaigns and Elections Minor

The Campaigns and Elections minor is intended to accommodate the interests and the needs of students from a variety of majors who want to develop a coherent educational program in a sub-field of Political Science. This minor will provide students with knowledge and analytical tools necessary to understand the election process and political campaigning in the United States.

V. Quarter Advising Sheet Campaigns and Elections Minor

Campaigns and Elections:

The Campaigns and Elections minor is intended to accommodate the interests and the needs of students from a variety of majors who want to develop a coherent educational program in a sub-field of Political Science. This minor will provide students with knowledge and analytical tools necessary to understand the election process and political campaigning in the United States.

VI. Transition Policy

All minors will consist of five courses. These courses will be identical with those listed for the minor as of Spring 2012 but under the new numbering system. Students who entered the university before Summer 2012 may treat a semester course as equivalent with a quarter course for purposes of a minor.
