Program Learning Goals

Note: these are required for all undergraduate degree programs and majors now, and will be required for all graduate and professional degree programs in 2012. Nonetheless, all programs are encouraged to complete these now.

Program Learning Goals

- Goal A: Appreciate theatre as an art form, which has influence on the social, cultural, and political aspects of societies.
- Goal B: Respond as an informed audience member.
- Goal C: Understand the context and impact of historical playwrights and productions.
- Goal D: Analyze scripts, performances, and productions by applying a variety of theories and research methods.
- Goal E: Identify the fundamental skills required for the art and process of performance.
- Goal F: Understand the conceptual, aesthetic, and technological practices essential to basic lighting, video, scenic, and costume design.
- Goal G: Work collaboratively and communicate professionally with a variety of artists involved in the art of theatrical production.
- Goal H: Identify areas of specific interest and pursue avenues for further study or practice.

Assessment

Assessment plan includes student learning goals, how those goals are evaluated, and how the information collected is used to improve student learning. An assessment plan is required for undergraduate majors and degrees. Graduate and professional degree programs are encouraged to complete this now, but will not be required to do so until 2012.

Is this a degree program (undergraduate, graduate, or professional) or major proposal? Yes

Does the degree program or major have an assessment plan on file with the university Office of Academic Affairs? Yes

Summarize how the program's current quarter-based assessment practices will be modified, if necessary, to fit the semester calendar.

No changes necessary.

Program Specializations/Sub-Plans

If you do not specify a program specialization/sub-plan it will be assumed you are submitting this program for all program specializations/sub-plans.

Pre-Major

Does this Program have a Pre-Major? No

Lawrence Krissek, Professor of Earth Sciences
Faculty Chair, Committee on Curriculum and Instruction
College of the Arts and Sciences

Dear Larry,

We are submitting the semester versions of the Department of Theatre's undergraduate programs: Bachelor of Art in Theatre and the Minor in Theatre. The semester degree proposals were reviewed and approved by the Department of Theatre, reviewed by me at various stages, and reviewed by the chairs and directors in the arts units with Divisional Dean Mark Shanda. Since the Department of Theatre is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre, the chairs and directors of the arts units from the arts functioned as a NAST standard and curricular review body. They unanimously approved the programs at their November 3, 2010 meeting.

Bachelor of Art: The BA in Theatre was approved by CAA in May of 1991 with the group of accredited degrees from the arts, and small revisions were last made and approved by CAA on October 8, 2008 with substantial revisions preceding on April 7, 2004. The quarter-based degree was 181 credit hours with 63 credit hours in the major program (fourteen 1-5 credit hour courses and 12 additional credit hours in the major of the student's choice) and its semester-based version is 121 credit hours with 43 credit hours in the major program (eleven 1-3 credit hour courses with 15 additional units in the major of the student's choice). They are retaining their four foundational requirements of Text, Design, Performance, and Production. The department reduced the number of prescribed courses in the foundational requirements, and offered more choice for students under major electives.

They are retaining their pre-requisite of Theatre 100 or 101 that will become 2100 on semesters. This is still counted on the GE "side" of the checksheet. The PACER table reflects that the quarter units offered in the unit are the 63 (major course work) + 5 (GEC—Theatre 100), and the semester units offered in the unit are the 43 (major course work) +3 (GE—Theatre 2100).

The department has made an example four-year plan for students who will be in different years on the quarter-system and continuing the degree on semesters. Please note that the BA in Theatre has an assessment plan on file with OAA, confirmed October 15, 2010.

Minor in Theatre: There were no major revisions to the proposed semester-based program. The program converted from 24 quarter-credit hours (essentially five 5-credit hour courses) to 15 semester-credit hours (essentially five 3-credit hour courses). This one-to-one translation of courses will still require 5 (3-credit hour) courses that are available on semesters, just as they were on quarters.

The courses that are specific to all of the programs are listed under Theatre in PACER and have been advanced along with the program forms. All programs from Theatre have the approval of Arts and Humanities. As these undergraduate proposals travel from the Department of Theatre through the curricular approval process, please include these majors in a bundle with the undergraduate majors from the Department of Dance and School of Music, all of which make up the accredited Performing Arts majors. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call or email me at 292-5727 or williams.1415@osu.edu.

Thank you for your consideration of these proposals,

RE: Quarter to Semester Conversion

The Ohio State University Department of Theatre has reviewed the following programs offered by the department and recommends approval of conversion from quarter to semester of all current programs:

- Bachelor of Arts – Theatre
- Theatre Minor
- Interdisciplinary Media Production & Analysis Minor
- Interdisciplinary Video Arts Minor
- Master of Arts – Theatre
- Master of Fine Arts – Acting
- Master of Fine Arts – Design
- Doctor of Philosophy – Theatre
- Graduate Minor in Cinema/Video

These programs have been reviewed and approved in a variety of faculty meetings and retreats, including meetings by area of specialization, the department's Curriculum and Instruction Committee (comprised of the Undergraduate Studies Committee and Graduate Studies Committee and their associated directors), and meetings of the faculty as a whole.

Sincerely,

Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Program Rationale Statement

The Department of Theatre offers a Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Master of Fine Arts and Doctor of Philosophy, all of which are accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST), as well as an undergraduate Theatre Minor, Media Production & Analysis Minor, Video Arts Minor and the Graduate Minor in Cinema/Video. The last significant change to the Bachelor of Arts in Theatre was approved by the Council on Academic Affairs on April 7, 2004 in response to a large increase in undergraduate students and the re-accreditation process. The purpose and function of the Bachelor of Arts in Theatre is to provide students with a comprehensive academic experience in the Theatre arts. The study of theatre design, technology, acting, directing, and the history and culture of theatre, as well as contemporary performance and film and video are addressed by the BA program through required and elective courses.

The Bachelor of Arts in Theatre currently requires 63 credit hours for completion of the program. Given the growing undergraduate enrollments, the faculty's desire to maintain a comprehensive approach to the BA, and the lower number of courses that can be offered in the semester system, we propose the attached 43 unit program.

The core curriculum in the semester based Bachelor of Arts in Theatre consists of:

- three Foundations in Text, reduced from four under the quarter system, with an increase in special topics available to students for completion of the third requirement;
- two Foundations in Design, reduced from three, with one required general overview course and several specializations to select from;
- two Foundations in Performance, reduced from three;
- four Foundations in Production (practicum);
- and a minimum of 15 units of major electives (Theatre 3000 or higher).

The revised program will assist our BA students in a timely matriculation and will provide greater flexibility to the students by adjusting the balance of required course work and major electives, recognizing that students learn best when they exercise greater control over their course of study. As a result of combining the fundamentals that are at the core of the quarter based courses into introductory courses for each of the three major disciplines within Theatre (text, design and performance), the department is able to offer more intermediate and advanced "special topics" within each discipline and thus increasing both the academic and research/creative activity opportunities for the students. By providing students with multiple means of completing their requirements, the new curriculum will continue to improve the Department of Theatre's matriculation rates and retention.

Department of Theatre: Transition Plan B.A. in Theatre

Our guiding principle is that no student will be delayed from completing their degree due to the conversion to semesters. Coursework will continue to be managed by regular audits of student progress toward graduation using existing check-sheets and new check-sheets developed for semester conversion. Students will work closely with the department's Undergraduate Coordinator/Advisor and their faculty advisor to insure a smooth transition. The Department of Theatre has one full-time Undergraduate Studies Coordinator (Academic Advisor), one faculty member appointed to a three year term as Undergraduate Studies Chair, and four faculty members appointed to two year terms on the Undergraduate Studies Committee. Collectively these individuals provide oversight for the advising of approximately 200 majors. Advising workshops will be held in the spring of 2012 and will be part of orientation in autumn 2012 to prepare faculty and staff for the transition.

After careful examination, the core of the degree was maintained with some slight modifications to content and delivery. We reaffirmed our commitment to the liberal arts, B.A. degree but wanted to create greater flexibility for students. To that end we endorsed the idea of fewer required classes within the major and increased the number of electives allowing students some freedom to shape the degree to fit their specific areas of interest in Theatre (i.e. Acting, Design/Technology, Directing, etc.). The reduced number of required classes and added flexibility should make the transition easier to manage.

We do not have a prescribed plan for the sequencing of classes that students must follow. Prerequisite paths help guide students in the selection of courses and we continue to encourage advisors to promote plans of study that have students taking the bulk of their introductory, prerequisite, foundational classes in years one and two. This sequencing is helpful in predicting class enrollments, clearing bottle necks and reducing the need for late petitions from students nearing graduation. It should also aid in the transition from quarters to semesters. However, since we don't require such a sequence some students will need accommodation in the new system.

What follows are a set of likely scenarios for students who have completed one, two and three years under quarters and then transition to semesters.

Department of Theatre: Transition Plan
B.A. in Theatre

Students who have completed one year at the time of semester conversion will typically have completed the following classes within the major:

- TH100 Introduction to Theatre (counted as a G.E.C. class)
- TH22X Technical Production Fundamentals (scenic, costume or lighting)
- TH22X Technical Production Fundamentals (scenic, costume or lighting)
- TH205 Technical Production Practicum
- TH280 Craft of Acting

To complete the major under semesters they will need to take the following courses:

- TH2110 Script Analysis
- TH2000 Technical Production Practicum
- TH3000 Production Run Crew Practicum
- TH3111 Directing
- One from the following
 - TH3241 Theatre Sound Techniques
 - TH3411 Introduction to Scenic Design
 - TH3511 Introduction to Costume Design
 - TH3611 Introduction to Lighting Design
- TH3731 Theatre Histories and Literatures
- TH4000 Advanced Practicum
- One from TH5771.01-TH5771.09 Special Topics in History, Literature and Criticism
- Major Electives: 15 units at/above 3000 level

Department of Theatre: Transition Plan
B.A. in Theatre

Students who have completed two years at the time of semester conversion will typically have completed the following classes within the major:

- TH100 Introduction to Theatre (counted as a G.E.C. class)
- TH205 Technical Production Practicum
- TH205 Technical Production Practicum
- TH220 Technical Production Fundamentals (scenic)
- TH221 Technical Production Fundamentals (lighting)
- TH222 Technical Production Fundamentals (costume)
- TH280 Craft of Acting
- TH305 Production Run Crew
- TH210 Script Analysis
- TH383 Speech and Voice or TH386 Stage Movement

To complete the major under semesters they will need to take the following courses:

- TH3111 Directing
- TH3731 Theatre Histories and Literatures
- TH4000 Advanced Practicum
- One from TH5771.01-5771.09 Special Topics in History, Literature and Criticism
- Major Electives: 15 units at/above 3000 level

Department of Theatre: Transition Plan
B.A. in Theatre

Students who have completed three years at the time of semester conversion will typically have completed the following classes within the major:

- TH100 Introduction to Theatre (counted as a G.E.C. class)
- TH205 Technical Production Practicum
- TH205 Technical Production Practicum
- TH220 Technical Production Fundamentals (scenic)
- TH221 Technical Production Fundamentals (lighting)
- TH222 Technical Production Fundamentals (costume)
- TH280 Craft of Acting
- TH305 Production Run Crew
- TH210 Script Analysis
- TH383 Speech and Voice or TH386 Stage Movement
- TH531 Theatre Repertory I (Theatre History)
- TH532 Theatre Repertory II (Theatre History)
- Major Electives (5-6 credits)

*Students will likely have taken TH367.x by this point and counted in the G.E.C. as a second level writing course.

To complete the major under semesters they will need to take the following courses:

- TH3111 Directing
- TH4000 Advanced Practicum
- One from TH5771.01-5771.09 Special Topics in History, Literature and Criticism
- Major Electives: 6 units at/above 3000 level
