Credit Hour Explanation

Program credit hour requirements		A) Number of credit hours in current program (Quarter credit hours)	B) Calculated result for 2/3rds of current (Semester credit hours)	C) Number of credit hours required for proposed program (Semester credit hours)	D) Change in credit hours
Total minimum credit hours required for completion of program		25	16.7	12	4.7
Required credit hours offered by the unit	Minimum	20	13.3	12	1.3
	Maximum	20	13.3	12	1.3
Required credit hours offered outside of the unit	Minimum	5	3.3	0	3.3
	Maximum	5	3.3	0	3.3
Required prerequisite credit hours not included above	Minimum	20	13.3	12	1.3
	Maximum	20	13.3	12	1.3

Explain any change in credit hours if the difference is more than 4 semester credit hours between the values listed in columns B and C for any row in the above table

A formerly 5-course minor is being reduced to 4 courses to be in line with the other departmental minor (Russian) and many other majors in ASC. The old extradepartmental requirement (generally taken in the social sciences) is being eliminated to reduce the hours and to avoid overlap with the social-science-oriented Slavic Studies minor in International Studies.

Program Learning Goals

Note: these are required for all undergraduate degree programs and majors now, and will be required for all graduate and professional degree programs in 2012. Nonetheless, all programs are encouraged to complete these now.

Program Learning Goals

- a. Minors will develop proficiency of ACTFL Novice High or Intermediate Low in a Slavic or East European language to enable them to manage uncomplicated communicative tasks.
- b. Minors will acquire analytic skills to analyze and research media, texts, and cultural artifacts relating to a Slavic or East European society or several such societies.
- c. Minors will demonstrate critical understanding of a Slavic or East European society or several such societies.
- d. Minors will demonstrate experiential and pragmatic knowledge of a Slavic or East European culture.
- e. Minors will demonstrate an awareness of international issues and an international outlook.

Assessment

Assessment plan includes student learning goals, how those goals are evaluated, and how the information collected is used to improve student learning. An assessment plan is required for undergraduate majors and degrees. Graduate and professional degree programs are encouraged to complete this now, but will not be required to do so until 2012.

Is this a degree program (undergraduate, graduate, or professional) or major proposal? No

Program Specializations/Sub-Plans

If you do not specify a program specialization/sub-plan it will be assumed you are submitting this program for all program specializations/sub-plans.

Pre-Major

Does this Program have a Pre-Major? Yes

Completion of the foreign language GEC (1101, 1102, 1103) in a Slavic or East European language is prerequisite.

Lawrence Krissek, Professor of Earth Sciences
Faculty Chair, Committee on Curriculum and Instruction
College of Arts and Sciences

Dear Larry,

The Department of Slavic and Eastern European Languages and Literatures has completed its proposal for semester versions of its undergraduate programs:

Undergraduate Major:
BA in Russian

Minor Programs:
Minor in Romanian
Minor in Russian
Minor in Slavic

The Arts and Humanities Disciplinary Advisory Panel for Curriculum within the College of Arts and Sciences reviewed and approved the undergraduate programs from Slavic and Eastern European Languages and Literatures during meetings in early December 2010 and early January 2011. All undergraduate programs are converting with minimal change, with the request to deactivate the Minor in Romanian. The BA in Russian has an assessment plan on file with OAA, verified October 15, 2010.

Most specifically, I have highlighted the important changes for each program below:

Bachelor of Arts in Russian: The BA in Russian was last revised and approved by CAA on June 3, 2009. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 50 credit hours with 25 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 31-33 credit hours with 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The department has provided a detailed transition plan for students beginning the pre-requisite course-work in Russian and for those in the major course-work.

There are two specializations that are transcriptable.

- Specialization in Russian Language: The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 50 credit hours with 25 credit hours in pre-requisites (proficiency through 104 plus one culture course), and its semester-based version is 33 credit hours plus the 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The program is retaining its pre-requisite requirements of fulfilling through 1103 (previously 104) and the one culture course. The Russian Language Specialization retains its second and third year requirements in the Russian Language and now requires a Capstone Russian 4575 for its majors. Russian 675, the Writing Seminar, is no longer required. The Language Electives are the same as on the quarter-system with students gaining proficiency at the fourth-year level, and the Literature/Culture Electives remain the same with the option for students to select from a list of courses that focus on linguistic aspects of the language.

- Specialization in Literature, Culture, and Film: The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 50 credit hours with 25 credit hours in pre-requisites (proficiency through 104 plus one culture course), and its semester-based version is 31 credit hours plus the 15 credit hours of pre-requisites. The program is retaining its pre-requisite requirements of fulfilling through 1103 (previously 104) and the one culture course. The Literature, Culture, and Film Specialization retains its second year requirements in the Russian Language along with its advanced reading requirement in Russian. It now also requires the Capstone course, Russian 4575 for its majors. Russian 675, the Writing Seminar, is no longer required. The Literature, Culture, and Film Electives remain the same as on the quarter-system.

Minor Programs:

- Minor in Russian: The Minor in Russian was last revised in 1990s. The quarter-based program is 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours of pre-requisites. The semester-based program is 13 credit hours (one 4-credit hour core course and 9 credit hours of elective course work) with twelve credit hours of pre-requisites (1101-1103). The minor is a course-to-course translation: 4 courses required in the minor course work in quarters, and still 4 courses required in the minor on semesters. With the revisions to the GE language requirements, and the re-envisioning of the GE language course offerings of reducing 20 quarter-credit hours to 12 semester-credit hours, students will take courses that are approximately 4 semester-credits in work-load. With the skills mastered in 1103, and an additional year of Russian language courses, students' time in the language will still be two years—the same as it was on quarters.
- Minor in Slavic Languages and Literatures: The Minor in Slavic Languages and Literatures was last revised in 1990s. The quarter-based program is 25 credit hours with 20 credit hours of pre-requisites. The semester-based program is 12 credit hours (four 3-credit hour courses) with twelve credit hours of pre-requisites (1101-1103). The minor is reducing its offerings by one course going from five on quarters to four on semesters. The significant change is the removal of the outside department requirement and the option for students to select second-year language as an option, but not a requirement.
- Minor in Romanian: The Minor in Romanian was also last revised in the 1990s, and with the departure of faculty member Rodica Botoman in 2001, the department has been unable to offer sufficient course work in the minor. There are currently no students in the minor, and therefore, a transition plan has not been provided. However, pending future hires or interest from students, the unit would like to retain the option of reviving the minor.

We are sending these undergraduate programs forward for review and approval in the next stage of curricular review at the Arts and Sciences Committee on Curriculum and Instruction.

The courses that are specific to all of the programs are listed under multiple Book 3 Listings of Slavic, Eastern European Languages and Literatures, Russian, Romanian, Bosnian, Bulgarian, Croatian, Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, Ukrainian, and Polish. All programs from Slavic and Eastern European Languages and Literatures have the approval of Arts and Humanities. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call or email me at 292-5727 or williams.1415@osu.edu.

Re: Semester Conversion: Slavic and East European Languages and Literatures Minor

The proposed changes to the structure of the Slavic Minor were recommended by a faculty subcommittee and discussed at full faculty meetings in Spring and early Autumn 2011. During those plenary meetings, the changes were approved in accordance with our standard policy for curricular change, i.e., by majority vote. (The proposed changes were, in fact, carried by full consensus.) The Department proposal was submitted to Valarie Williams, Associate Dean of Arts and Humanities, for college-level review in Autumn 2010.

The rationale for the proposed program changes is laid out in section 10 of the proposal. The transition policy that I have approved is given in section 13 of the proposal.

Thank you very much for your consideration; please let me know if you need further information.

Sincerely yours,

B. Semester-System Advising Sheet

Minoring in Slavic and East European Languages and Literatures

We are glad you are thinking of minoring in in Slavic and East European Languages and Literatures! Our minor allows you to focus on a single culture or else to develop a broad knowledge of several cultures in the region. You can choose from a wide array of languages—Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish—in which you will develop a Novice High or Intermediate Low proficiency, which will enable to handle survival topics and a range of everyday communicative tasks in straightforward social situations. In addition, you will take coursework to increase your appreciation and understanding of your chosen culture(s), develop your analytical skills, and give you an international outlook. The minor consists of four classes (13 credits)—second-year, second semester in your chosen language and 3 electives selected from a menu of literature and culture courses.

Prerequisites (12 cr)

- 1101 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)
- 1102 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)
- 1103 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)

Elective Courses (12 cr): choose 4 courses from the following list; at least one of the courses must be at the 3000-level or higher.

- Language 2104 Second-year language 2 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)
- Language 3101 Third-year language 1 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)
- Language 3102 Third-year language 2 in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Czech, Georgian, Hungarian, or Polish, or other language offered by the Department as approved by the Coordinating Advisor (4 cr)
- E Eur LL 7627 Reading Course in a Balkan Language (3)
- Polish 5230 Polish Literature (3 cr)
- Slavic 2330 Vampires, Monstrosity, and Evil: From Slavic Myth to Twilight (3 cr)
- Slavic 2345 Introduction to Slavic Literature and Culture (3 cr)
- Slavic 2367 The East European Experience in America (3 cr)
- Slavic 3320 Science Fiction: East versus West (3 cr)
- Slavic 3251 Underground Literatures and Unofficial Cultures in Old and New Media (3 cr)
- Slavic 3360 Minorities in Eastern European Film (3 cr)
- Slavic 4191 Internship (3 cr; repeatable)

- Slavic 4193 Individual Studies (1–6 cr; repeatable)
- Slavic 4194 Group Studies (1-6 cr.; repeatable)
- Slavic 4260H Dead Man Writing: Lit. Representations of Capital Punishment (3)
- Slavic 4560H Cinderella’s Fantasy: Gender and Women in W/E Europe (3)
- Slavic 4520 Slavic and East European Cities (3)
- Slavic 4597 Politics of Language in Southeastern Europe
- Slavic 4600 Survey of the Slavic Languages (3)
- Slavic 4797 Study at a Foreign Institution (1-12 cr.; repeatable)
- Slavic 4798 Study Tour (1–3 cr; repeatable)
- Slavic 4998 Supervised Project (1–3 cr; repeatable)
- Slavic 4999 Research for Thesis (3 cr)
- Slavic 4999H Research for Honors Thesis (3 cr)
- Slavic 5570 Austro-Hungarian Grotesque (3 cr)
- Slavic 5200 Slavic and East European Literature (3 cr)
- Slavic 7621 Reading Course in a South Slavic Language (3)
- Slavic 7623 Reading Course in a West Slavic Language (3)

Occasionally, other courses may be offered in the Slavic Department or in other departments that can fit into a Slavic and East European Languages minor. Such substitutions require the approval of the program's Undergraduate Coordinating Advisor.

9. Curriculum map:

10. Rationale for proposed program changes

The Slavic and East European Languages and Literatures minor was last revised in the 1990s. In its quarter-system form, it requires five courses—second-year in a Slavic or East European Language (401/405, 402/407), two elective courses from within the department, and one course from outside the department. The department has long wanted to make two innovations in this minor, which are reflected in the current proposal: 1) to eliminate the extradepartmental requirement; and 2) to make the second-year language elective rather than required. There are two justifications for change #1: first, the additional course makes the minor longer by one course than the DSEELL minor in Russian and many minors in other programs; second, it makes Slavic and East European Languages and Literatures minor overlap too much with the Slavic Studies minor offered by International Studies. The justification for change #2 is that it will give students greater flexibility, since the second-year courses in a given "less commonly taught" language (i.e., all of the DSEELL languages other than Russian, which has its own minor) may not be offered every year due to enrollment constraints.

The proposed minor includes several content courses designed by faculty who have joined the department since the last revision—Slavic 3251, 3320, 3251, 3360, 4520, 4583H, 4584H, 5670, and 5680. In addition, Slavic 5760, which was previously a graduate course (760), is included at a lower level, as the course has been reconceived to accommodate upper-division undergraduates. The proposed minor also includes new courses to accommodate internships (Slavic 4191), study tours (Slavic 4798), supervised projects other than theses (Slavic 4998), non-Honors thesis research (Slavic 4999).

Georgian, which has recently been added to the DSEELL curriculum, has been added to the list of eligible languages, while Bulgarian and Ukrainian have been put into limbo. All courses formerly entitled Serbo-Croatian will be retitled Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, in accordance with new political realities and the currently accepted scholarly norms in the English-speaking world.

The courses that come from directly from the previous major are as follows:

- Straightforward conversions:
  - Language 580 > 3101;
  - Language 581 > 3102;
  - Slavic 130/230 > Slavic 2230;
  - Slavic 245 > Slavic 2345;
  - Slavic 367 > Slavic 2367;
  - Slavic 671 > Slavic 7621;
  - Slavic 672 > Slavic 7623
  - Slavic 693 > Slavic 4193;
  - Slavic 694 > Slavic 4194;
  - Slavic 697 > Slavic 4797;
  - Slavic 783H > Slavic 4999H.

- Merged courses:
  - Language 401/405 + 402/407 > 2104;
  - E Eur LL 671 + 672 > E Eur LL 7627;
  - Polish 630 + 631 > Polish 5230;

The following courses have been dropped from the minor: E Eur LL 673, Slavic 673 (converted to graduate-level courses), Polish 409 (eliminated), and all Russian-rubric courses.

11. Table of Credit-Hour Equivalent

Program credit hour requirements:	Current program credit hours	Calculated result	Proposed program credit hours
Total credit hours required for completion of program	25	16.7	12–13
Prerequisite credit hours required for admission to program which are not counted toward total hours.	20	13.3	12
Required Credit hours offered by the unit.	20	13.3	12
Required Credit hours offered outside of the unit.	5	3.3	0
Double counted credit hours that meet two or more requirements (e.g., prerequisites, General Education courses, and/or program requirements)	20 cr prerequisites are GEC  15 cr elective can be GEC	16.7	12 cr prerequisites are GEC  3–9 cr electives can be GEC
Free elective credit hours	15	10	12

12. Rationale for change in credit hours: Not applicable. On the change from a five-course to a four-course minor, see #10, above.

TRANSITION POLICY

13. Policy statement from the chair of the department

All students who have begun the minor under the quarter system will be allowed to complete it under the semester system with four courses rather than five, in line with the new semester requirements. Students who have completed the first quarter of an applicable second-year language class numbered 401 (405), but not the second quarter required for the minor under the quarter-system program, will be credited with the completion of one of the four courses for the minor under the semester system. To replace the old 402 (407), they will be allowed to use one non-language course from the list of electives. Alternatively, they may be allowed to substitute 2201 in the given language upon the recommendation of the Director of the Language Programs.

Students who have completed both quarters of an applicable second-year language sequence will be credited with the completion of two of the four courses for the minor under the semester system.

Students who have completed the non-departmental course required for the quarter-system minor may use it as an elective in the semester-system minor.
