Program Learning Goals

Note: these are required for all undergraduate degree programs and majors now, and will be required for all graduate and professional degree programs in 2012. Nonetheless, all programs are encouraged to complete these now.

Program Learning Goals

- (A) Student develops basic understanding of cultural, economic, and media theory as they pertain to music.
- (B) Student gains an understanding of historical and current patterns and practices in the music and entertainment industries.
- (C) Student explores interrelationships of music and musical practice, media, and commercial, social, and economic entrepreneurships.
- (D) Student develops an understanding of the history and styles of music and technologies that shaped an increasingly globalized culture.
- (E) Student develops capacity for analysis of and creative problem solving in the convergence of music, culture, and commerce in society through perspectives from music, communications, business, cultural studies, and technology.

Assessment

Assessment plan includes student learning goals, how those goals are evaluated, and how the information collected is used to improve student learning. An assessment plan is required for undergraduate majors and degrees. Graduate and professional degree programs are encouraged to complete this now, but will not be required to do so until 2012.

Is this a degree program (undergraduate, graduate, or professional) or major proposal? No

Program Specializations/Sub-Plans

If you do not specify a program specialization/sub-plan it will be assumed you are submitting this program for all program specializations/sub-plans.

Pre-Major

Does this Program have a Pre-Major? No

Lawrence Krissek, Professor of Earth Sciences
Faculty Chair, Committee on Curriculum and Instruction
College of Arts and Sciences

Dear Larry,

The Disciplinary Advisory Committee for Curriculum from the Division of Arts and Humanities within the College of Arts and Sciences met, reviewed, and unanimously approved the two minor programs from the School of Music on November 24, 2010. The Arts and Humanities-1, Arts Subcommittee of the Committee on Curriculum and Instruction also met and unanimously approved the two minors from the School of Music: Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise and Minor in Music. Both minor programs are accredited by the National Association of the Schools of Music (NASM) and have been approved by that body. I have outlined below certain points discussed in both meetings and certain aspects of the programs:

Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise: The Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise was approved by CAA on August 19, 2009. There were no major revisions to the program. The program converted from 22 credit hours to 15 credit hours and maintained the two required courses in Music along with the one required course from Fisher College of Business with the remaining credit hours filled from the same list of electives. Please note that in the PACER program, there was no provision made for the minor, therefore it is filed under the heading of the school's other minor program: Music Minor. We are still asking it be counted as the Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise. Please note that music majors can take the minor, as approved by ASC CCI and CAA in 2009. We are retaining that aspect of the minor program. We have also included letters of support from the School of Communication and the Fisher College of Business.

The Arts and Humanities-1, Arts Subcommittee of the Committee on Curriculum and Instruction reviewed the transition from the quarter-system program to the semester-system and noted that it is a straight conversion: 3 required quarter courses to 3 required semester courses, with the remainder of the course work fulfilled through elective choices. The subcommittee noted small typos, additions of the PACER chart, and other errata. The minor was unanimously approved on February 3, 2011.

Minor in Music: The Minor in Music was approved by CAA in Spring 2004, and students began enrolling in the minor in Autumn Quarter 2004. The quarter-version of the minor was approved by ASC CCI and CAA with the inclusion of 100-level courses in applied study counting on the minor program. The semester-version will also include the same 1000-level courses on the Music Minor. This is the appropriate option for applied study, which typically is considered the studio component of the minor program. The minors take the 1000-level in applied while the music majors (BA, BM, BME) begin at the 2000-level in applied since they have passed an entrance audition and a theory examination to enter the major programs. Please note that the music minors do experience 2000-level and 3000-level coursework in Musicology (Music History) and Music Theory. Therefore, we are requesting an exemption from the ASC rule of no 1000-level course work counting on the minor, and 6 credits at the 3000-level and above. Please note that the learning goals for this program are set by NASM. There are 15 entries in PACER because the box only allows for a set number of characters that is surpassed by the NASM goals. In order to include the goals in their entirety, the school has included them in 15 entries, while naming them “A,” “B,” etc. These six goals labeled “A,” “B,” etc. listed on the map correspond to the six goals in the 15 PACER form entries.

The minor consisted of 20 hours of quarter-credits and will consist of 15 hours of semester-credits. While in the quarter-version program students had the option of taking a course in Musicology or Music Theory, the semester-version program requires that students take one course in Musicology and one course in Music Theory that total 5 semester-credit hours. The limits on ensembles and applied courses remain the same.

The Arts and Humanities-1, Arts Subcommittee of the Committee on Curriculum and Instruction reviewed the transition from the quarter-system program to the semester-system and noted that it is a relatively straight conversion with the requirement that students take the 5 credit hours of Musicology and Music Theory. They also enquired about students who wished to take applied lessons that were not included on the minor; those students who wish to take a different instrument may audition for placement in a studio. However, there is no guarantee that a minor student could receive one-on-one instruction in studios beyond the ones listed on the minor form. The subcommittee noted small typos, additions of the PACER chart, and other errata. The minor was unanimously approved on February 3, 2011.

We are sending these programs forward for review at the full Committee on Curriculum and Instruction.

Thank you for their consideration,

School of Music Plan for Semester Conversion

in Musicology in Music Theory	in Conducting in Instrumental Performance in Voice Performance
--	---

Members of the tenure track faculty of the School of Music led by eight academic area heads are responsible for crafting and delivering the curricula. Beginning in Winter Quarter, 2009, a task force began discussions and identified principles by which the conversion would take place. After comparing the semester systems used by peer institutions, the decision was made to minimize changes to OSU program goals and/or curricular requirements. Led by the Associate Director of Undergraduate Studies and the Chair of Graduate Studies, three committees, including the curriculum, graduate studies, and administrative (comprising the eight area heads), continued their deliberations. Administrative committee discussions yielded the decision to renumber the School's courses based upon the current numbering system rather than developing a new system.

For the remainder of the academic year, each area began to convert its courses to their semester equivalents. In the summer of 2010, new course information was collected to enter the School's 700 courses into the CUT spreadsheet. Also, during the summer of 2010, the Associate Director, in frequent consultation with the area heads, drafted semester programs, four-year plans, and curriculum maps. Each area vetted drafts of these documents at the annual faculty retreat in September of 2010. Simultaneously, the Chair of Graduate Studies, through consultation with area heads and the Graduate Studies Committee, revised the curricular sheets for the graduate degrees. Further modifications were made to these documents through October, and near-final drafts were properly vetted through the curriculum committee, Graduate Studies Committee, and administrative committee during that period. The full faculty approved all semester programs on October 27, 2010.

Transition Plans

In the Autumn of 2010, the School faculty began to advise its students of the approaching conversion to semesters: 1) during the annual welcome convocation, the Associate Director spoke with students about the conversion process and how it will affect them; 2) on the same day, a portion of the School's website was dedicated to the semester conversion. Documents contained therein discuss the semester numbering system, the university's commitment to students, and advice for the students as the semester change approaches. Over time, these web pages will contain more specific information providing details on program and course conversion. Furthermore, the SOM Associate Director will create a spreadsheet that will show current quarter system course numbers and titles and their semester equivalents. During the 2010-2011 school year, the Associate Director will also meet with student organizations such as the Undergraduate Music Council, to discuss the conversion process in detail, and to provide the aforementioned documentation to the students.

In the Autumn of 2011, the Associate Director will offer an extensive group advising session for all undergraduate students on the day prior to the start of classes. Soon thereafter, during "Advising Fairs," members of the SOM faculty, even those not regularly assigned advisory duties, will offer special (one-time only) individual advising sessions in preparation for the School's conversion to semesters. Furthermore, several times in each quarter of 2012, the Associate Director will offer additional undergraduate group sessions which will be advertised by email, web communication, and posted flyers. One-on-one advising sessions with each student's regular advisor, undergraduate and graduate, will serve as follow up during the normal advising period. In determining eligibility for students enrolled in the School's minor programs, those courses taken in the quarter system will be honored using a 1:1 ratio.

It is anticipated that, for a number of students in the School who started earlier than 2008, flexibility will be required to prevent further delays in the time it takes them to graduate; the School intends to use substitute courses within each student's program to alleviate this problem. Moreover, those students who have been away from campus or have fallen behind in their programs will need special guidance to access the correct course sequence and fulfill the necessary prerequisites. For example, any student midway through a sequence in Music Theory or Music History will have course options which are designed to overlap slightly with courses already taken and those yet to be taken. A specific scenario might describe a performance major who has completed Music 421 (the fourth of six quarters in theory) in the quarter system and needs to complete the sequence in the semester system by taking a seven-week course, designed to serve as a bridge between 421 and 3422, the fourth of four semesters in theory. History sequences will be handled in similar fashion; the attached four-year plans will be of great assistance to all involved in this process.

For those graduate students who matriculate under the quarter system and are transitioning into the semester system, then: 1) no student will have their progress delayed by the change to semesters, 2) any required course that has been modified will be counted in either system, and 3) if, for whatever reason, a student is unable to take a required course, then upon the recommendation of the advisor, either a substitute course will be allowed or the course will be waived by the Chair of Graduate Studies.

I would like to acknowledge the dedicated work of the Associate Director for Undergraduate Studies, Tim Leasure, and the Director of Graduate Studies, Pat Woliver; the documents shepherded by these two gentlemen throughout this time-consuming and frequently overwhelming task are monuments to their commitment, skill, and perseverance.

Respectfully Submitted,

Music Core Courses

In the conversion, the music theory core has dropped from 30 quarter hours to 16 semester units. This accounts for an overall drop of 4 credits relative to two-thirds of the total credits in the quarterly music theory core. In the music history core, the number of semester credits is 12, a drop from the 15 quarterly credits in this area. The drop in history credits represents an increase of 2 credits relative to two-thirds of the credits in the quarterly history core. Overall, the changes to the School's theory and history core courses are the source of a 2-credit drop in each of the School's programs relative to two-thirds of each program's quarterly credit totals.

General Education

The School has decided to continue the dual role that a number of the required music history and music education courses play in the GE categories. Music 2240 and 2241, Music History I and II, will continue to serve in the Historical Studies GE category as well as acting as the Global Studies course. Music 3351, World Music, will serve as a Culture and Ideas/Open Option GE as well as a Global Studies course. Music 2470, Introduction to Music Education, will continue as the GE Writing Level II course in the Bachelor of Music Education programs only. The Bachelor of Music in Musicology has, historically, had different GE requirements than the rest of the School's tagged programs, so under the semester program, the School is bringing the GE requirements of the Musicology program in line with the other tagged music degrees.

Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise

The Minor in Music, Media, and Enterprise program (see Appendix A) has been converted with minimal changes. The quarter program consists of 22 credits and, under the semester system, the program will consist of 15 credits. This reflects neither an increase nor decrease relative to two-thirds of the quarterly credit total. There are no significant curricular changes in this program.

Music, Media, and Enterprise Minor (XXX, XXX)

Coordinating Advisor contact info: An Arts academic advisor or the Director of the Music, Media, and Enterprise Minor in the School of Music.

The Music, Media, and Enterprise minor requires a minimum of 15 credits of course work. Students are required to take courses in Music, Communication, and Business and to select at least one course from outside their major. No courses may be taken for credit more than once and counted toward this minor.

Through the MME minor, students will be able to develop a multidisciplinary perspective on the role of music in commerce, and society. Students gain a theoretical foundation for continuing study and research in the interrelated areas of music, communication, business, society, and culture. They will exhibit knowledge of fundamental principles relevant to professional education in business and the law and understand the practical principles and skills of musical and creative entrepreneurship. Through the MME Minor, students will be able to transcend disciplinary specialization and isolation to explore the heterogeneous complexity of music production and reception in contemporary society.

Required Courses (9 credits):

Students must take the following courses:

MUS 2271 Introduction to Music Enterprise (3)
MUS 3330 Music Production and Reception (3)
BUS MHR 290 (Successor) Entrepreneurship

Electives (6 credits):

The recommendation is to choose at least two courses outside the student's major; however students must take one course outside their major.

Students should complete the remaining credits to total 15 credits for the minor. This may be from the courses listed below:

+COM 1101 History of Human Communication (3)
COM 3404, Media Law and Ethics (3)
*COM 3413 Media Entertainment: Theory and Research (3)
*COM 2440 Mass Communication and Society (3)
*COM 4446 Media Economics (3)
COM 3554 Social Implications of Communication Technology (3)
COM 3466 Communication and Popular Culture (3)
*AMIS 211 (Successor) Introduction to Accounting
BUS MHR 390 (Successor) Personal Creativity and Innovation
*BUS MHR 490 (Successor) New Venture Creation (pre-re: 290)
MUSIC 2220 Introduction to Music Technology
MUSIC 2250 Music Cultures of the World
MUSIC 2251 The World of Classical Music
MUSIC 2252 History of Rock 'n' Roll
MUSIC 2253 Introduction to Jazz

MUSIC 2288 Bebop to Doowop to Hiphop: The Rhythm and Blues Tradition
MUSIC 3348 Music on the Move in a Globalized World
*MUSIC 3349 The Beatles in 20th Century Music
MUSIC 3431 Protest in American Music
MUSIC 3432 Spectacle: Music and Public Amusements
MUSIC 5638 Audio Recording
MUSIC 5639 Audio Recording Laboratory

Note: Non-Music Majors must have approval from the Director of the Music, Media, and Enterprise Program for all electives in music.

*Denotes a pre-requisite or permission of instructor

+Note: If Comm 1101 is taken, students must take at least 18 credits total. See ASC rules 1 and 2 under ASC Minor Guidelines.

Note: Students must have 6 credits at the 3000-level or above.

RE: School of Music Minor

Colleagues:

We have reviewed the proposed semester version of the Music, Media and Enterprise Minor offered by the School of Music and have examined the Communication courses listed as options under the minor. We intend to continue to offer these courses as semester courses, and so have no problems with continuing the minor as proposed.

Dear Dr. Leasure,

I am pleased to inform you that the Fisher College of Business plans to offer the courses you wish to include in your Music, Media, and Enterprise minor program under semesters.

The current courses you include in that program are AMIS 211, and Bus-MHR 290, 390, and 490. We plan to continue to offer all these courses under semesters. The proposed course numbers for these courses will be finalized within the next two weeks. We will inform you of the course numbers, titles and credit hour values as soon as these are finalized.

We would be happy to have you continue to make these courses available to Music, Media, and Enterprise minor program students under semesters.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if you need further information. Best wishes for good success with the semester conversion process.

Sincerely,
