The minor in Latino/a Studies explores the social, cultural and historical realities facing Latinos/as residing in the United States as well as how such realities interface with those of Central and Latin America and the Hispanophone Caribbean. The minor attends to all variety of cultural phenomena as well as social and historical event in the Americas that inform the shaping of a pan-Latino identity and experience.

The minor in Latino/a Studies requires 25 credit hours and draws upon course work in several departments and colleges. Students must choose one of the 3 focus areas (Culture and Literature; History; and Social Issues) which are comprised of a minor core, a focus core course and 15 elective hours. Minor course work may overlap with the GEC where appropriate.

*Courses marked with an asterisk have variable topics. Syllabi for these courses need approval from the minor coordinator to count on the minor.

Choose one focus area to complete the minor:

Culture, Literature and Arts Focus

Students choosing this area will focus their coursework on the various forms of creative expressions that have emerged from the U.S. Latina/o community: literature, film, art, dance, theater, music, comic books, and more. This might also occasion the exploration of Latina/o cultural phenomena as it interfaces with that arising out of communities in the Americas generally. Students will explore just how such Latina/o cultural making and engaging is a means of creative expression as well as a potential vehicle for social transformation.

Core course: Comp Studies 242: Intro to Latino/a Studies

Students choose one course from the following:

Comparative Studies 544

English 367.01, 581*

Women's Studies 367.02, 375, 367.02, 560

History Focus

This focus area will situate Latina/o history on the border between U.S. and Latin American history. Students will learn about the experiences of communities who had been rendered invisible by canonical histories in the U.S. and Latin America. Moreover, they will learn new methodologies for historical research and gain a greater understanding of the relationship between history and power.
