1. Provide the rationale for proposing this course:

Late-antique and Byzantine topics have entered the mainstream of both teaching and research in the fields of Greek, Latin, and Classical Studies. So far they have been taught at the graduate level under other seminar-level rubrics (e.g., Greek Historians). The department therefore decided that a separate course number was required to accommodate what has already become a regular feature of its graduate instruction.

2. Please list Majors/Minors affected by the creation of this new course. Attach revisions of all affected programs.

This course is (check one):  Required on major(s)/minor(s)  A choice on major(s)/minors(s)
 An elective within major(s)/minor(s)  A general elective:

3. Indicate the nature of the program adjustments, new funding, and/or withdrawals that make possible the implementation of this new course.
