Dear Kristi,

This note to confirm that Sociology 3210 was unanimously approved by the SBS Panel on 2-4-13.

One concern was expressed concerning the requirement that absences are unexcused unless prior permission is granted. One SBS Panel member wondered whether that means that "a student has to notify of an absence and get approval before hand. What about last minute bona fide emergencies where the student can notify (in the age of electronic communication, that is reasonable) but there is not time for an approval?"

The course will next go to the full ASCC for a 2-weeks comment period.

My best,
Bernadette
