Dear Hajime,

This note to confirm that on Thursday, March 28, the ASC Graduate Curriculum Committee reviewed and unanimously approved the proposed Master's of Applied Economics contingent on the final approval of the MOU.

The following mistakes with course numbers, credit hours, and course title were also noted and will be corrected:

- AED Econ 5250 "Commodity Futures and Options Markets" is 2 cr hrs, not 3. (This mistake appears in each attachment where the course is listed.)
- AED Econ 6400: the title is "Regional and International Development," not "International and Regional Development." (Ditto)
- On semester advising sheet, Econ 6712(listed under Spring semester) should say Econ 6721.

Should you have any question about this feedback, don't hesitate to contact Steven Fink, Chair of the ASC Graduate Curriculum Committee, or me.

Best wishes,
Bernadette
