Dear Randy,

On Friday, March 29, the ASC Arts and Humanities Panel reviewed requests to add GE Diversity Global Studies to History 2201, 2280, 2375, 3221, 3229, 3281, and 3580.

I am happy to report that the requests for the following courses were unanimously approved by the Panel: History 2280, 2375, 3229, 3281, and 3580.

The next two courses were approved with contingency:

- History 2201: Explanation for GE Global Studies on the syllabus should be more course-specific.
- History 3221: P. 4 of syllabus: there shouldn't be references to graduate students being graded differently on the midterm and final and being expected to write a longer research paper. This course is by definition an undergraduate course; should graduate students decide to take the course, they ought to be graded like everyone else in the class.

I will return History 2201 and 3221 via curriculum.osu.edu in a minute to enable the department to address those points.

Should you or your faculty have any question about this feedback, don't hesitate to contact Tim Leasure, Chair of the Arts and Humanities Panel (cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best regards,
Bernadette
