Dear Paula and Ashley,

On Tuesday, November 12, the ASC Arts and Humanities Panel reviewed a new course proposal for History 2705 with GE Historical Study.

I am happy to report that the course was unanimously approved with 2 recommendations:

1. Syllabus, p. 1: Second sentence: Replace reference to “quarter” with “semester.”
2. Initially, the Panel was confused by the fact that the combined GE rationale and GE assessment plan mentions GE Historical Study and both GE Diversity categories, though no GE Diversity status is requested for this particular course. The Panel then realized that this is a standard memo appended to all courses that request GE Historical Study or GE Diversity—Social Diversity in the US, or GE Diversity—Global Studies. For future submissions, Department of History might consider tailoring the document to the requested GE category (or categories) so that the document submitted only discusses the requested GE category (or categories).

The course will next advance to the full ASC Curriculum Committee for the standard 2-week comments period.

Should you have any questions about this feedback, please do not hesitate to contact Richard Fletcher, Chair of the ASCC A&H Panel (cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

My best,
Bernadette
