- An indication of where texts may be purchased is required. In addition , the nature of the attachments give the impression that courses are processed as an "if-the" process. If this GE, add, this, if an abroad course "add-this."
There is little evidence that the course has been considered holistically and genuinely within the assessment plan and curricular map of a unit's plan. (by Heysel,Garett Robert on 03/12/2014 07:29 PM)

I. Texts:

1. The Essential World History, William J. Duiker and Jackson J. Spielvogel (Boston: Wadsworth, 2012)
2. The Classical World, An Epic History from Homer to Hadrian, Robin Lane Fox (New York: Basic Books, 2006).
3. Various in-class handouts provided by Ionian Faculty

The instructor will distribute the relevant chapters of the two texts as during the pre-departure orientation. The books are otherwise available through Barnes and Noble or other online merchants.

II. Course Objectives:

Students participating in History 2797.02 will have the opportunity to experience first hand the significance of our Western tradition. Ionian University faculty will present not only a succinct and informative overview of the various historical eras beginning with ancient Greece and ending in the modern era, but also will gain a new and compelling appreciation for the significance of the Western tradition. Group excursions to sites in Greece such as the ancient oracle at Dodona or the Byzantine museum in Corfu will allow students an extra dimensional experience of Western civilization. Essay quizzes and a final collaborative PowerPoint presentation compose the testing portion of the course.

III. Policies:

1. OIA Directives:

Students must maintain good academic standing and disciplinary standing with The Ohio State University and must observe the Student Agreement, informing you that the Ohio State Code of Student Conduct extends to study abroad and you are obliged to participate in the program as designed, and release of All Claims that you signed as part of your study abroad application. Students must pass all required pre-departure and/or prerequisite courses with the grade stated in your acceptance letter.

2. Class attendance:

All pre departure sessions as well as scheduled class session at the Ionian University are mandatory. Failure to attend class will result in the lowering of the course grade. Please communicate with the resident director in case of sickness or any other event that would result in missing class.

IV. General Education Goals:

GE: Historical Studies: Students recognize how past events are studied and how they influence today's society and the human condition.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students construct an integrated perspective on history and the factors that shape human activity.
2. Students describe and analyze the origins and nature of contemporary issues.
3. Students speak and write critically about primary and secondary historical sources by examining diverse interpretations of past events and ideas in their historical contexts.

Rationale for fulfilling the GE Learning Outcomes for Historical Study:

Goals of the course that fulfill the GE Learning Outcomes in Historical Study:

History courses allow students to construct an integrated perspective on history and the factors that shape human activity through the following ways:

1. Critically examine theories of history, and historical methodologies

Students will explore varied methods used in explaining the past, methods that differed markedly over the long period of time covered (i.e., intellectual, economic, cultural, social).

2. Engage with contemporary and historical debates on specific regions, time periods and themes of the human past.
The lectures and text introduce students to the long span of the history of Greece and in the process encounter debates on such topics as empire and globalization.
3. Through reading in primary and secondary sources and in-depth class discussion, students will access and critically examine social, political, economic, military, gender, religious, ecological, and ethnic/racial/national movements in a wider socio- cultural context.
In this course students will explore such topics as the rise of Christianity and religious conflict and political struggle in connection with the big ideological movements (fascism, communism, socialism, liberal democracy) of the twentieth century.
4. Students will carry out in-depth analysis in a final paper, exam, or project comparing distinct historical moments, social movements and their effects.
Students will complete presentations that are focused on major events (such as the rise of Byzantium) or themes that carry across a wide span of time. The presentations involve collaboration as well as individual research in and interpretation of both primary and secondary sources.

V. Course Components:

These components may change slightly from year to year depending on pedagogical requirements.

VI. Exams/Quizzes (60%)

- A. (Pre departure): A multiple choice exam covering chapter 4 in The Civilization of the Greeks (5%)
- B. (Pre-departure): discussion questions covering chapters 12, 19, and 20 in Robin Lane Fox's The Classical World (5 %)
- C. (In-country): Five combined two-hour review and essay quiz sessions covering the following topics: (10% each)
 - 1. Ancient Greece
 - 2. Early Modern Europe/ Reformation
 - 3. Renaissance
 - 4. Enlightenment
 - 5. 20th Century, Totalitarianism, Democracy, European Union, Globalization

VII. Small Group Presentation (40%)

A. General Description: For the presentations on specific topics, the group will provide:

1. A brief narrative of the topic (What was the origin or cause(s) of the topic under consideration? Cite causes, development, events and outcomes. What happened? (i.e. the who, what, when, where, and why)
2. Discuss its cultural and historical significance
3. Describe its impact (What did it accomplish? How did it influence subsequent historical and cultural developments? What are the key concepts? How did it define, alter, and transform the cultural and historical context of which it was a part?)

B. Preparation and Research: (Power Point presentation will be 20 minutes in length)

1. Each member of the group should read at least 2 secondary sources and 1 primary source on the topic of their presentation.
2. A primary source is a piece of evidence written or created during the period under investigation. Primary sources are the records of contemporaries who participated in, witnessed, or commented on the events you are studying. They are documents and artifacts.
3. A secondary source is an account of the period in question written after the events have taken place. Often based on primary sources, secondary sources are books, articles, essays and lectures. The authors of secondary sources synthesize, analyze, and interpret primary sources and other secondary sources. In this assignment you will need to use scholarly secondary sources rather than popular secondary sources (which one routinely finds online).
4. Tertiary sources are encyclopedias, dictionaries and textbooks which summarize and synthesize secondary sources.
5. Material of the PowerPoint presentation must augment and complement material discussed in class. It cannot merely repeat what had been presented or discussed in class.
6. Possible Topics to date:
 - a. Sparta—culture, politics, historical impact
 - b. The Greek polis—form, philosophy and political impact
 - c. Greek colonization (Apoikiai)-background, causes, role of the Oikistes .
 - d. Rise of Byzantium
 - e. Renaissance
 - f. Early modern Europe
 - g. Enlightenment
 - h. Totalitarianism and Western Democracy
 - i. European Union and Greece

j. Modern Greece

7. You may develop other topics according to interest, but you will need to discuss the choice of topics with our instructor.
8. Take good notes. Not only will you need them for the presentation, but will also provide the course instructor a copy (see “Responsibilities of each group member”).
9. Use Goggle search for maps and images relating to your topic. You can look for images of individuals as well as events and places. Try to use images from the period you will speak about, rather than modern ones if possible.
10. You will need to get together with your group members at least twice in order to discuss your plans and put together the presentation.

C. Responsibilities of Each Group Member:

1. Each member of the group must do research on the topic at hand in order to contribute to the narrative portion of the presentation. Each group member will turn in to the professor a copy of their research notes.
2. Each member must participate in the oral presentation.
3. Each member must work on the PowerPoint presentation; therefore, each member must list the slides they were responsible for and give the list to the professor.

D. Format of the Presentation:

1. The format is a PowerPoint presentation in support of an oral presentation. How much or little of the text of your narrative is on the PowerPoint slides is up to you. You will need a detailed outline of the presentation to post as lecture notes.
2. Each member of the group will present a portion of the presentation.

3. Plan and practice for a 20 minute presentation. At the end of the presentation classmates will have an opportunity to ask questions.

E. Grading Criteria:

1. Your grade will have two parts; one based upon your individual contributions to the presentation and the other a “group” grade on the oral/visual portion of the presentation. Each is worth 50% of the overall grade.
2. Core criteria include clarity, accuracy, and reasonable thoroughness in your narrative as well as careful analysis and thoughtfulness.
3. In the oral presentation, you will be evaluated on how clearly you describe and explain your topic. In the PowerPoint presentation I’m looking for effective use of images and text.

4. Small Group Research Presentation Grading Criteria:

Presentation:

	excellent	very good	good	average	poor	missing
Definition of terms, trends, practices & background comparisons impact
detailed outline for posting for classmates

Grade:

Individual Research:

Concluding Notes:

1. Academic Integrity:

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee. For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct (http://studentaffairs.osu.edu/resource_csc.asp) Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, the Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute "Academic Misconduct." Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an "excuse" for academic misconduct.

2. Disabilities:

“Students with disabilities that have been certified by the Office for Disability Services will be appropriately accommodated and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs. The Office for Disability Services is located in 150 Pomerene Hall, 1760 Neil Avenue; telephone 292-3307, TDD 292-0901; <http://www.ods.ohio-state.edu/>.”

Allocation

The proposed credit hour rationale contains approximately 48 hours of formalized instruction, in addition to approximately 15 hours of structured educational experiences. Per the Arts & Sciences Curriculum guidelines equating 12 ½ hours of formalized instruction and/or 25 hours of structured educational experiences per credit hour (or 37 ½ hours of formalized instruction per 3 credit hour course), the Department of History requests that History 2797.02 be valued at 3 total credit hours. Specific course breakdown in terms of pedagogical valuation is as follows:

- (1) 10% Pre-departure quiz (The Civilization of the Greeks) and Discussion Questions on chapters 12 and 19 of Robin Fox Lane's The Classical World. Students read assigned materials and turn in take home quiz and discussion questions during the final pre departure meeting.
- (2) 40 % In addition to the scheduled in-class 48 hours of lecture and instruction, 5-10 hours of 6 out of class combined summary and quiz sessions. Dates for quizzes may vary slightly depending on course pace.
- (3) 50% Post program PowerPoint presentation of 20 minutes on various topics relating to the course (5 groups of 4 students). See syllabus for PowerPoint directives.

GE Assessment

GE assessment will be done during the course by the resident director to determine if the course content accurately reflects the aims and goals of the HS GE and at the end of HS 2798 by the resident director and OSU faculty members from appropriate disciplines who will thoroughly review the submitted work of students including quizzes and short essays as well as assess the academic quality of the PowerPoint group presentations in view of the goals of the HS GE.

1. Each member of the group must do research on the topic at hand in order to contribute to the narrative portion of the presentation. Each group member will turn in to the professor a copy of their research notes.
2. Each member must participate in the oral presentation.
3. Each member must work on the PowerPoint presentation; therefore, each member must list the slides they were responsible for and give the list to the professor.

D. Format of the Presentation:

1. The format is a PowerPoint presentation in support of an oral presentation. How much or little of the text of your narrative is on the PowerPoint slides is up to you. You will need a detailed outline of the presentation to post as lecture notes.
2. Each member of the group will present a portion of the presentation.
3. Plan and practice for a 20 minute presentation. At the end of the presentation classmates will have an opportunity to ask questions.

E. Grading Criteria:

1. Your grade will have two parts; one based upon your individual contributions to the presentation and the other a "group" grade on the oral/visual portion of the presentation. Each is worth 50% of the overall grade.
2. Core criteria include clarity, accuracy, and reasonable thoroughness in your narrative as well as careful analysis and thoughtfulness.
3. In the oral presentation, you will be evaluated on how clearly you describe and explain your topic. In the PowerPoint presentation I'm looking for effective use of images and text.

CORFU PRESENTATION donald cristina mandy 2013.pptx

The Evolution of Philosophy: from Ancient Greece to the Enlightenment

- I. Socrates (470-399 BC)
 - a. Brought reason into philosophy
- II. Rise of Scholasticism
 - A. Changing culture shifted focus of society
 - 1) Church center of society
 - B. Church scholars now the main philosophers
 - 1) Essentially became apologetics
 - 2) Also used as a teaching tool
- III. Saint Anselm's Ontological Argument
 - A. An attempt to prove existence of God through reason; had three points
 - 1) Man can conceive the greatest possible being in his imagination.
 - 2) The only way this being could be greater would be if it existed in reality.
 - 3) Nothing can be greater than the greatest possible being, so it must exist in reality due to premise two.
- IV. Thomas Aquinas' Cosmological argument
 - A. Attempt to prove God's existence through deduction; based on two propositions:
 - 1) Everything that is moved is moved by another
 - a) Objects don't move themselves-their parts move them
 - b) Accidental/violent movement is obviously caused by something else
 - c) Can't be in act and potency at the same time
 - 2) Movers cannot proceed to infinity
 - a) One mover must be finite because time is finite
 - b) First mover cause of all subsequent motion; infinite movers means no first mover and therefore no movement could ever occur
Can't have infinite instrumental causes because then there is no principal cause; no principal cause means no movement.
-Due to this there must be an unmovable first mover: God
- V. Renaissance Thought
 - A. One major development: humanism
- VI. Descartes and Modern Philosophy
 - A. Wanted to build a foundational system to acquire new knowledge and break from authority
 - B. Mind has two principal functions
 - 1) Intuition
 - 2) Deduction
 - C. Doubted everything in order to find an indubitable truth
 - 1) "I think, therefore I am" first truth he found; used it to discover new truths.
- VII. Impact of Descartes
 - A. Created "rules" for philosophy
 - B. Rationalism and empiricism became future schools of thought
- VIII. The Enlightenment
 - A. Predominant intellectual movement of 18th Century Europe

- 1) Also known as the Age of Reason
 - 2) Stunning success in understanding the physical world during this time
- B. Renaissance v Enlightenment
- 1) During the Renaissance
 - a) the desire to accumulate past knowledge, but broke new ground in art and literature.
 - b) philosophy was mostly based in religion (medieval philosophy)
 - 2) During the Enlightenment
 - a) emphasis on a conscious effort to break from the past, with the exception of the classical past of ancient Greece and Rome being highly respected
 - b) philosophy takes root in aspects of economic and social relations, as well as politics (becomes modern philosophy)
 - 3) Both periods
 - a) involved an application of humanistic values
 - the Enlightenment is generally viewed as the logical continuation of the Renaissance time period (with many similarities and some differences)
- IX. John Locke
- A. Widely known as the Father of Classical Liberalism
- 1) A political ideology that emphasizes securing freedom of the individual by limiting government power
- B. Created the “theory of the mind”
- C. Advocated for the contract theory of Government
- 1) People have a right to fight against a corruptive government that does not meet their needs
- X. Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- A. His political philosophy influenced the French Revolution as well as the overall development of modern Political, sociological, and educational thought
- B. Had a radical departure from the Enlightened way of view
- 1) not optimistic
 - 2) civilization is corrupting
- C. One of the founders of the Romanticism
- 1) general will not reasonable or planned
- XI. Other Noteworthy Philosophers
- A. Montesquieu
- 1) Wrote “Spirit of the Laws” after being moved by the circumstances of the French justice system. It talked about the importance of separation of powers as a way to prevent abuse of power.
- B. Hume
- 1) Came about in the latter part of the Enlightenment
 - 2) A skeptic who suggested that people were too driven by their desire for logic and order

RE: Assessment Plan for proposed GE courses: Historical Study Category, Social Diversity in the U.S., and Diversity: Global Studies

Assessment Goals and Objectives

1. Both the GE and course-specific learning objectives for all History courses might be summarized as follows:

Historical Study GE Requirements:

Goals:

Students recognize how past events are studied and how they influence today's society and the human condition.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students construct an integrated perspective on history and the factors that shape human activity.
2. Students describe and analyze the origins and nature of contemporary issues.
3. Students speak and write critically about primary and secondary historical sources by examining diverse interpretations of past events and ideas in their historical contexts.

Goals of the courses that fulfill the GE Learning Outcomes:

History courses develop students' recognition of how past events are studied and how they influence today's society and the human condition through the following ways:

1. Critically examine theories of history, and historical methodologies
2. Engage with contemporary and historical debates on specific regions, time periods and themes of the human past.
3. Through reading in primary and secondary sources and in-depth class discussion, students will access and critically examine social, political, economic, military, gender, religious, ecological, and ethnic/racial/national movements in a wider socio- cultural context.
4. Students will carry out in-depth analysis in a final paper, exam, or project comparing distinct historical moments, social movements and their effects

2. Both the GE and course-specific learning objectives for History courses requesting Social Diversity in the U.S. might be summarized as follows:

Social Diversity GE Requirements:

Goals:

Courses in social diversity will foster students' understanding of the pluralistic nature of institutions, society, and culture in the United States in order to become educated, productive, and principled citizens.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students describe and evaluate the roles of such categories as race, gender and sexuality, disability, class, ethnicity, and religion in the pluralistic institutions and cultures of the United States.
2. Students recognize the role of social diversity in shaping their own attitudes and values regarding appreciation, tolerance, and equality of others.

Goals of the course that fulfill the GE Learning Outcomes: Students will achieve the social diversity goals and learning outcomes by

1. Completing readings, attending lectures, and participating in class discussions and in-class assignments that will help students understand how the categories of race, gender, class, ethnicity, religion, and nation have shaped peoples' identities and the distribution of power and resources in the U.S. and elsewhere
2. Describe theories of racial, ethnic, class, national, gender, and religious formation on exams and written assignments.
3. Critically examine theories of race, gender, class, ethnicity, religion, and nation
4. Engage with contemporary and historical debates on race, gender, class, ethnicity, religion, and nation.
5. Access and critically examine movements framed by race, gender, class, ethnicity, religion, and/or nation in a wider socio-cultural context.
6. Carry out in-depth analysis in a final paper, exam, or project comparing distinct moments of ethnic, racial, nationalist, gender, class, and/or religious mobilization or social movements and their effects.

3. Both the GE and course-specific learning objectives for History courses requesting Diversity: Global Studies might be summarized as follows:

Global Studies GE Requirements:

Goals:

Courses in Diversity – Global Studies will foster students' understanding of the pluralistic nature of institutions, society, and culture across the world in order to become educated, productive, and principled citizens.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students understand some of the political, economic, cultural, physical, social, and philosophical aspects of one or more of the world's nations, peoples and cultures outside the U.S.
2. Students recognize the role of national and international diversity in shaping their own attitudes and values as global citizens.

Goals of the course that fulfill the GE Learning Outcomes: Students will achieve the social diversity goals and learning outcomes by

1. Through reading in primary and secondary sources and in-depth class discussion, students critically examine the political, economic, social, cultural and philosophical development in the World.
2. Engage with contemporary and historical debates on the differences and similarities between cultures and peoples.
3. Access and critically examine ethnically, nationally or religiously framed movements in a wider socio-cultural and global context.
4. Carry out in-depth analysis in a final paper, exam, or project comparing distinct moments in human history and how they shaped the world in the past and today.
5. Completing readings, attending lectures, and participating in class discussions and in-class assignments that will help students understand the complexity of debates over international issues. They will describe theories of international issues on exams and written assignments.
6. Students will understand the roots and structures of today's globalized world.

II. Methods

An assessment of whether these objectives are met is effectively carried out by an examination of the work students are actually required to do for the course. Contributions in class discussions will be considered, but weighted more lightly, given the tendency for more confident students to contribute more to such discussions. Paper and exams will provide an understanding of students' abilities to think historically and to engage in analysis. This can be gauged by their responses to specific exam questions—asking students to provide a perspective on history and relate that perspective to an understanding of the factors that shape human activity. Thus, exams for Historical Study courses will have at least one question that requires students to provide a perspective on the factors that shaped an event or theory. Similarly, for courses that include Diversity in the U.S. GE requirements, we will have at least one question that requires students to provide a description of the roles of categories such as race, gender, class, ethnicity and religion and how those roles have helped shape either their perspective or the country's perspective on diversity. For courses that include Diversity: Global Studies, we will ask one question that requires students to provide an understanding of some combination of political, economic, cultural, physical, social, and philosophical differences in or among the world's nations, peoples and cultures outside the U.S. In this way, we hope to measure the courses (and the students') progress toward the multiple objectives of the GE. In this way we should be able to ascertain whether they are acquiring the desired skills and not simply learning (and regurgitating) specific information.

Summary of Data:

A committee, appointed by the UTC Chair, will be asked to evaluate a sample of questions and papers, and to gauge how well the goals of the course seem reflected in them. Assessment of Historical Study, Social Diversity, and Diversity: Global Issues from the GE goals will be carried out primarily through the evaluation of formal graded assignments and ungraded in-class assignments. The committee will rank the assignments across a four-category scale that captures students' mastery of the GE goals. Students will complete an informal feedback survey halfway through the semester to assess their own performance, the pace of the class, and the instructor's effectiveness. A brief summary report will be written by the UTC Chair, and that, as well as the sampled questions themselves, will be made available to the instructor and to the Chair of the department. We intend to insure that the proposed courses adequately articulate these goals, teach toward them, test for them, and help students realize their individual potential to meet them. Assessments will be summarized and used to alter the course for the next teaching.

Dear Professor Fletcher,

I write to ask for the concurrence of Classics for a study abroad course, History 2798.02. It has been offered, and it is currently in the process for GE Historical Studies approval. I would very much appreciate a response since we'd like to get the course moving forward before the end of the semester. Thanks,

Dear Professor Fletcher,
I wondered if there was any word on concurrence. Thanks,
Paula
