Dear Carmen, May, Katra, and Natascha,

On Friday, April 18, the ASCC Arts and Humanities Panel reviewed a submission for a new course: German 2798.02 (with GE Education Abroad and GE Diversity—Global Studies).

I am happy to report that the course proposal was unanimously approved. The Panel thought it seems like a very interesting course and the course proposal is well put together.

The Panel did have three recommendations, which I here list:

- Could the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures please notify the Department of History? Some of their students might be interested in taking the course.
- Credit hours calculation potentially misinterprets the credit hours guidelines. Overall, the course seems to be worth much more than the requested 3 semester credit hours.
- Provide updated curriculum map.

The course will next be reviewed by the GE Education Abroad ad-hoc Panel (which handles the review of the GE Education Abroad part).

Should you have any questions about this feedback, please do not hesitate to contact Richard Fletcher (Chair of the A&H Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

My best,
Bernadette
