Dear Abe, Cynthia, Sue, and Julie,

On Friday, March 27, the Arts and Humanities Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee (ASCC) reviewed proposals for the following new courses: Philosophy 5610 & Linguistics 5410

I am happy to report that the courses were unanimously approved. The Panel assumes that both departments will include all the necessary information/boilerplate in the syllabi when the courses are taught.

At the end of the course description for each course (the description that will eventually appear in the course catalog & is currently on the form in curriculum.osu.edu), is it OK for me to add: "Team-taught course with faculty member in Linguistics/Philosophy" (to be adjusted depending on course at hand)? Thank you for letting me know.

Since the courses are at the 5000-level and also open to graduate students, the courses will next be reviewed by the ASC Graduate Curriculum Committee.

If you have any questions about the feedback above, please feel free to contact Janice Aski (Chair of the A&H Panel; cc'd on this message), or me.

My best,
Bernadette
