Dear all,

On Friday, April 10 , the Arts and Humanities Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee (ASCC) reviewed proposals for the following new courses: History/Religious Studies 3680 with GE Historical Study and GE Diversity-Global Studies.

I am happy to report that the courses were unanimously approved with the following recommendation: The GE assessment plan mentions a rubric. For future submissions, the Arts and Humanities Panel asks that any such rubric used for GE assessment be included in the course request as well.

The course request will next be presented to the full ASCC at its next meeting and, provided there are no concerns, will then be advanced to the Office of Academic Affairs.

I am including the usual reminder that the GE assessment plan will need to be implemented each time the course is offered and GE data gathered. Like for all new GE courses, after the second offering of the course, the Assessment Panel will ask the Departments to submit an initial report summarizing GE assessment results of those first two offerings (following the format of sections I and II of the Assessment Report Requirement in Appendix 7 of the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Operations Manual [p. 88] http://asccas.osu.edu/files/ASC_CurrAssess_Operations_Manual.pdf). As always, our program assistant Danielle Hogle (hogle.12) can further help the Departments with any aspect of the GE assessment requirement. She will make sure to contact the Department before the course is offered and provide any assistance that the faculty members may need. Could you please communicate this information to the faculty members?

If you have any questions about the feedback above, please feel free to contact Janice Aski (Chair of the A&H Panel; cc'd on this message), or me.

My best,
Bernadette

PS: At the end of the course description for each course (the description that will eventually appear in the course catalog & is currently on the form in curriculum.osu.edu), is it OK for me to add: "Team-taught course with faculty member in History/Religious Studies" (to be adjusted depending on course at hand)? Thank you for letting me know.
