Hi Jess,

On Friday, October 2, the Arts and Humanities Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed proposals to offer 100% online versions of Education: T&L 2368 and 3356.

The Panel unanimously approved both requests with two recommendations:

- P. 1: There is no longer an “Arts and Humanities Literature requirement” in the GE. The overarching “Arts and Humanities” category has been removed. We now only speak of GE Literature category.
- Use GE boilerplate language on syllabus: that is, state GE goals (these are left out on the current syllabus) and use expected learning outcomes verbatim.

Literature

Goals:

Students evaluate significant texts in order to develop capacities for aesthetic and historical response and judgment; interpretation and evaluation; and critical listening, reading, seeing, thinking, and writing.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students analyze, interpret, and critique significant literary works.
2. Through reading, discussing, and writing about literature, students appraise and evaluate the personal and social values of their own and other cultures.

Both course requests have been advanced to the Office of Academic Affairs.

Should you have any questions about the feedback above, please feel free to contact Janice Aski (faculty chair of the Arts and Humanities Panel; cc'd here), or me.

My best,
Bernadette
