Dear Piers,

Janice Aski has looked over the revised submission for Philosophy / Jewish Studies 3111 and approved all the changes. The proposal has been advanced to the next level.

I am including a reminder that the GE assessment plan for Philosophy / Jewish Studies 3111 will need to be implemented each time the course is offered and GE data gathered. As is the case for all new GE courses, after the second offering of the course, the Assessment Panel will ask the Department to submit an initial report summarizing GE assessment results of those first two offerings (following the format of sections I and II of the Assessment Report Requirement in Appendix 8 of the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Operations Manual [p. 116] http://asccas.osu.edu/files/ASC\_CurrAssess\_Operations\_Manual.pdf ). Our program assistant Danielle Hogle (hogle.12) can help the Department with any aspect of the GE assessment requirement. She will also make sure to contact the Department before the course is offered and provide any assistance that may be needed with assessment. Could you please let the faculty member(s) know?

Best regards,
Bernadette

Dear Professors Shabel and Goldish,

On Friday, September 18 , the Arts and Humanities Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal to add GE Cultures and Ideas to Philosophy / Jewish Studies 3111.

I am happy to report that the addition of the GE was approved with 2 contingencies:

- For Philosophy version: Please, provide complete and updated curriculum map explaining how the course will fit in the major. The document provided is a description of the Philosophy major requirements, not a curriculum map.
- Both versions: GE assessment plan: (1) The direct measures of the GE expected learning outcomes (ELOs) seem difficult to quantify (for example, course grades often are not solely based on meeting the GE ELOs). It might be good to use a rubric. (2) Indirect measures: SEI's do not contain questions pertaining to the GE expected learning outcomes and thus cannot be used for GE assessment.

The faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities Panel is Janice Aski (aski.1). Should you have any questions about the vote of the Panel, please direct your questions to her.

I will return Philosophy / Jewish Studies 3111 via curriculum.osu.edu in a minute to enable the two units to make the necessary changes.

Best regards,
Bernadette
