Dear Dr. Hashamova,

The College of Social Work supports adding Slavic 5450 - Global Human Trafficking: realities and Representations to the Slavic Studies curriculum. We offer a course on human trafficking from a social work perspective and believe this proposed course will be a nice complement to that course for students interested in learning more about this significant social issue. We look forward to seeing this course offered at Ohio State University.

Sincerely,
