Here is her response regarding the 4200 course as far as the distance learning designation is concerned.

Let's uncheck the distance box. That step can be taken in the future. I want that course to be submitted with the others. There will be sections offered and students will meet to discuss the cinematic qualities of the works that have been viewed.

Hi Mary,

On-line courses have specific guidelines. If this is considered an on-line course then you will need to work with Mike Kaylor in ASC Tech. He works with faculty who develop fully on-line or hybrid courses. See information here:

We recommend you contact Mike Kaylor ASAP at Kaylor.1@osu.edu., We will not be able to submit this course to the panel yet.

Debbie,

The students will be attending films and then submitting written works on-line instead of attending a formal class meeting. I presume that makes it 100% distance. I'm in a meeting in University Hall from 1-2:30 and can stop by if you have any other questions between now and then... just email me.

Thanks,
Mary Anne

Sorry Mary, I'm running into some additional pop of questions on this form. On this course you answered Yes to the Distance education component. The additional questions are below:

Is any section of this course (check all that apply)

100% at a distance

Greater or equal to 50% at a distance

Less than 50% at a distance
