Hi Paul,

The Arts and Humanities Panel reconsidered the proposal to revise Design 3505 at its meeting this past Tuesday. I am happy to report that the Panel unanimously approved the revision. The Panel members only had one small comment/reminder that an absence policy should be included in the syllabus when the course is taught.

Design 3505 will now be advanced to the next step. Please let us know if you have any questions.

My best,
Bernadette
