RURAL SOCIOLOGY 1500

INTRODUCTION TO RURAL SOCIOLOGY

Spring Semester, 2016 (29366)

Tuesday & Thursday from 2:20-3:40 PM//Baker Systems, Room 120

INSTRUCTOR: Joseph F. Donnermeyer, Professor Emeritus
School of Environment and Natural Resources
Room 408C, Kottman Hall, 2021 Coffey Road

HOME PHONE: 451-9830

Cell: 614 582-4710

OFFICE PHONE: 292-9167

E-MAIL: donnermeyer.1@gmail.com

OFFICE HOURS: By appointment only. I will, however, be available before and after class.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

By the end of this course, I will expect you to demonstrate: (1) basic knowledge and understanding of concepts and content areas in the discipline of Sociology; (2) an ability to apply sociological concepts to issues and topics concerning you and your relationships within various human groups anywhere in the world; (3) an ability to apply sociological concepts to issues and topics concerning rural and urban places in American society, and of other societies around the world, including the application of sociological principles to agricultural, food and environmental issues; (4) an ability to think critically about issues and topics affecting U.S. society, and of other societies around the world. Thinking critically means (a) understanding the strengths and weaknesses of different and/or opposing points of view (b) no matter how strongly you believe that you are right and everyone else is wrong.

This course meets a GE requirement in Social Science – Groups and Politics, and a GE in Social Diversity in the United States. According to the OSU guidelines: “Social science develops students’ understanding of the systematic study of human behavior and cognition; of the structure of human societies, cultures, and institutions; and of the processes by which individuals, groups, and societies interact, communicate, and use human, natural, and economic resources. Students understand the theories and methods of social scientific inquiry as they are applied to the studies of individuals, groups, organizations, and societies. Students understand the behavior of individuals, differences and similarities in the contexts of human existence (e.g., psychological, social, cultural, economic, geographic, and political), and the processes by which groups, organizations, and societies function. Students develop abilities to comprehend and assess individual and social values, and recognize their importance in social problem solving.”

NO REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: No textbook is required, however, pdf versions of chapters related to each topic in this course can be found on the RS 1500 Carmen site. Each chapter posted on the content page – (under “supplemental materials”) supports/backs up the lectures, providing a broader framework for how sociology addresses important dimensions of peoples and societies.

COURSE POLICIES:

1. REGULAR CLASS ATTENDANCE IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED. A substantial proportion of the final grade for this course is based on attendance checks, all of which require that you be here. Summary and note-taking pages of course lectures will be posted on CARMEN at appropriate times. Print them out and use them, please! Some of you learned how to take notes in high school, but some of you are not very good at it or were never asked/required to do much of it. It is now time to learn, since note-taking is an essential skill for the workplace.

2. MID-TERMS: two (2) will be given. The first mid-term includes everything covered during the first 10 class sessions, and administered during the 11th class session on Tuesday, February 16. The second mid-term includes only content covered from the 12th class session through the 19th class session and administered during the 20th class session on Thursday, March 24. Each mid-term is 25 percent of the final grade, for a total of 50 percent. Each will consist of 25 multiple choice questions. Make-up exams will be allowed only under extreme circumstances, and only for an excused absence (i.e., documented, on official letterhead, and judged by me to be legitimate – see attendance checks below). The make-up exam will be in essay format.

3. FINAL EXAM: The final exam is multiple-choice in format and will be given during the scheduled exam period designated for this class during finals week – Wednesday, April 27, from 2:00-3:45 PM (in this classroom!). The final exam represents 32 PERCENT of the final grade. It will consist of 32 multiple choice questions. It is comprehensive, covering materials from the very beginning of class through the final minute of the final session of class. Questions will be equally distributed (almost), with about 1/3rd of the questions representing material up to the first midterm, about 1/3rd from material covered between the 1st and 2nd midterms, and about 1/3rd since the second midterm. Make-up exams will be allowed only under extreme circumstances, and only for an excused absence (i.e., documented, on official letterhead, and judged by me to be legitimate – see attendance checks below). The make-up exam will be in essay format.

4. ATTENDANCE: On eight random occasions, attendance will be taken. Attendance checks mostly will be in the form of a short question on a current topic. Checks can occur more than once during a single class session. Attendance checks are worth 18 percent of the final grade (3 points each), that is, up to 6 attendance checks will count. This policy allows you to miss 2 attendance checks without asking for a special exemption. I reserve the right to deny an attendance check to anyone who walks in late, that is, once the class begins. The class begins when I start talking. An exemption can be requested ONLY after you miss 2 attendance checks. To be exempted, the absence must be a documented illness, a student organization/sports related activity, or for some other legitimate reason. Two essential rules for special exemptions: (1) exemptions must be requested BEFORE the class session for which the exemption will apply; and (2) the exemption requires documentation which must be on official letterhead, a legible signature, and a phone number to the clinic /coach / student organization advisor etc. for verification.

5. TURN OFF YOUR  CELL PHONES WHILE YOU ARE IN MY CLASS! Remind me to turn off mine.

6. ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: For all assignments for this course, the Code of Student Conduct of The Ohio State University applies. Academic misconduct is defined as any activity that compromises the academic integrity of the university or subverts the educational goals of this course. In this class, the most frequent occasion upon which academic misconduct charges are brought up is when two or more students attempt to communicate during or immediately after handing in an exam. My strict rule is no talking or conversing once the exam has begun all the way through when the student hands in the exam and leaves the room. Since students in this class speak a number of different languages, I only have to see students talking to file charges, even though I do not understand the words exchanged between those students. I do not have time to learn the native language of everyone in this class, hence, it is the only way for me to apply a fair and consistent policy for all students. The Code of Student Conduct can be found under “Resources” on webpage for the Committee on Academic Misconduct/Office of Academic Affairs.

7. STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: All students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact me privately to discuss specific needs. Please contact the Office for Disability Services at 614-292-3307 in Room 150 Pomerene Hall to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. Or visit the internet address of this office at <http://www.ods.ohio-state.edu> for more information.

8. INAPPROPRIATE COMMENTS: By its nature, any course in sociology focuses on issues that can be controversial, emotional and/or political. For example, this class may touch on issues related to abortion, terrorism, gay rights, gun control, animal rights, human consumption of foods with GMO's, the death penalty, ethnic/race prejudice, substance use, environmental regulations, factory farming, animal welfare/rights etc. In addition, there are students in this class from a variety of backgrounds. You may have strong, even uncompromising feelings about particular issues. That is terrific!!!! However, in my class, there is no room for remarks that show intolerance for the points of view of others, or remarks that are explicitly prejudicial to other groups (especially along the lines of race, ethnicity, lifestyles etc.). Remember, one goal of this course is to learn how to think critically. That means understanding opposite points of view even as you hold firm to your own opinions/values/beliefs.

9. GRADING PHILOSOPHY: I use the standard OSU scheme.

A	=	93+ PERCENT AVERAGE
A-	=	90 - 92 PERCENT AVERAGE
B+	=	87-89 PERCENT AVERAGE
B	=	83-86 PERCENT AVERAGE
B-	=	80-82 PERCENT AVERAGE
C+	=	77-79 PERCENT AVERAGE
C	=	73-76 PERCENT AVERAGE
C-	=	70-72 PERCENT AVERAGE
D+	=	67-69 PERCENT AVERAGE
D	=	60-66 PERCENT AVERAGE
E	=	UNDER 60 PERCENT AVERAGE

10. There are no extra points earned from extra work. Don't even bother to ask!

11. NOTE: If you attend class regularly, take good notes in handwritten form or on a computer/i-pad (and do NOT do on-line shopping, facebook, texting, go to the "meet other single students" on-line site etc.) and read the textbook, you should do okay in this course. However, if you are having trouble with this course, please see me as soon as possible. Do not wait until the end of the semester..

Course description

Principles of society, major social institutions, and social change; emphasizes social changes in rural life, rural organizations, population, and family living.

This is a completely on-line course that will be delivered using Carmen, The Ohio State University's learning management system. Course content, including lecture presentations and videos, will be delivered using Carmen (<https://carmen.osu.edu/>). Carmen will also be used to complete quizzes, exams, and discussions. Other resources, such as the University Libraries, may also be used. This course is self-paced yet all course requirements must be completed during the semester of offering. All discussions, quizzes, and exams must be completed by the due date shown on the syllabus.

This course meets a GE requirement in Social Science – Groups and Politics, and a GE in Social Diversity in the United States. According to the OSU guidelines: “Social science develops students’ understanding of the systematic study of human behavior and cognition; of the structure of human societies, cultures, and institutions; and of the processes by which individuals, groups, and societies interact, communicate, and use human, natural, and economic resources. Students understand the theories and methods of social scientific inquiry as they are applied to the studies of individuals, groups, organizations, and societies. Students understand the behavior of individuals, differences and similarities in the contexts of human existence (e.g., psychological, social, cultural, economic, geographic, and political), and the processes by which groups, organizations, and societies function. Students develop abilities to comprehend and assess individual and social values, and recognize their importance in social problem solving.”

Course learning outcomes

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

1. Understand the theories and methods of social scientific inquiry as they apply to the study of organizations and polities.
2. Understand the formation and durability of political, economic, and social organizing principles and their differences and similarities across contexts.
3. Comprehend and assess the nature and values of organizations and polities and their importance in social problem solving and policy making.
4. Describe and evaluate the roles of such categories as race, gender and sexuality, disability, class, ethnicity, and religion in the pluralistic institutions and cultures of the United States.
5. Recognize the role of social diversity in shaping their own attitudes and values regarding appreciation, tolerance, and equality of others.

Grades

Assignment or category	Points
Discussions (5)	15
Quizzes (5)	15
Midterm 1	20
Midterm 2	20
Final Exam	30
Total	100

See course schedule, below, for due dates

Discussions

You will complete a total of five (5) discussions throughout the semester. *Discussions will be submitted online using Carmen Discussions. Each discussion will be open on Carmen for 1 week and you must submit your response by 11:59pm on the Wednesday of this week. Discussion prompts are designed to enhance your understanding of key concepts by having you reflect on and connect sociological theory and methods in the rural context. Each discussion submission should be written in your own words and be between 250-500 words in length. You will not be able to view your classmates' responses until you submit your own response. At 12:01am on the Thursday of this week you will be assigned at least one classmate to respond to. Your response should be 3-4 sentences in length and reflect the major concepts in which your classmate presented in his/her submission. You are welcome to respond to additional classmates in addition to the one(s) in which you were assigned. Your assigned peer response must be submitted by 11:59pm on the Friday of this week. In order to receive full credit for a class discussion, you must submit your discussion prompt AND respond to the classmate(s) in which you were assigned to review within the appropriate deadline. If the discussion closes before you complete it you will earn a grade of 0%. Each discussion is worth 3% of your final grade.

Quizzes

You will take a total of five (5) quizzes throughout the semester. The quiz questions will be based on assigned readings and videos. Quizzes will be taken online using Carmen. They will be open on Carmen for 1 week and you can take the quiz any time during this week. You will be given 1-2 hours to complete the quiz on Carmen. If the quiz closes before you complete it you will earn a grade of 0%. Each quiz is worth 3% of your final grade.

Exams

All exams will be taken online using Carmen. Exams will be open on Carmen for approximately 24 hours and you can take the exam anytime during these 24 hours. You will be given 60-100 minutes to complete the exam. If you fail to complete the exam on Carmen before it closes you will earn a grade of 0%. You will NOT come to a classroom to take the exam. Rather, you take the exam from a location of your choosing that has Internet connection (e.g., dorm room, library). Each student must complete the exam on her or his own. You are NOT permitted to receive assistance from anyone else during the exam. You are NOT permitted to take the exams as part of a group.

Make-up exams will be allowed only under extreme circumstances, and only for an excused absence (i.e., documented, on official letterhead, and judged by me to be legitimate). The make-up exam will be in essay format.

Mid-term Exams (2)

You will take two (2) mid-term exams. The first mid-term includes everything covered during the first 4 weeks of class, and administered online on Friday, February 3. The second mid-term includes only content covered between Weeks 5-9 and will also be taken online on Friday, March 10. Each mid-term is 20% of the final grade, for a total of 40%. Each will consist of 25-50 multiple-choice questions. A significant number of exam questions will come from material presented in lecture videos. Additional material will be drawn from the assigned readings and videos.

Final Exam

The final exam is multiple-choice in format and will be given during the scheduled exam period designated for this class during finals week. The final exam represents 30% of the final grade. It will consist of 30-60 multiple-choice questions. It is comprehensive, covering materials from Week 1 to Week 14. Questions will be equally distributed (almost), with about 1/3rd of the questions representing material up to the first midterm, about 1/3rd from material covered between the 1st and 2nd midterms, and about 1/3rd since the second midterm. A significant number of exam questions will come from material presented in lecture videos. Additional material will be drawn from the assigned readings and videos.

Late assignments

If you miss the due date FOR ANY REASON you earn 0%. Do NOT wait until the last hour to complete exams and assignments. Technical glitches such as a bad Internet connection, bad Internet browser, a computer that “crashes”, a battery that runs out of power, etc. are NOT acceptable excuses for missing a deadline and you will earn a grade of 0%. Generally speaking, if you miss a deadline FOR ANY REASON then you will earn a grade of 0%. If you miss a deadline for medical or other reasons outside of your control, which must be documented, contact Dr. Donnermeyer by email (donnermeyer.1@osu.edu).

Grading scale

Faculty feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

Grading and feedback

For large weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 7 days.

E-mail

I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on weekdays.

Discussion board

I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on weekdays.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Student participation requirements

Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Logging in: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK
Be sure you are logging in to the course in Carmen each week, including weeks with holidays or weeks with minimal online course activity. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible. It is our recommendation that you spend at least 12-15 hours on this class per week.

- Contacting Dr. Donnermeyer: OPTIONAL
Periodic announcements will be posted on Carmen under News. If you have questions or concerns about the course or course material, please email me at donnermeyer.1@osu.edu. If you would prefer to speak face-to-face, please contact me via email to set up an appointment. In person meetings will be held on The Ohio State University campus or alternatively by phone. If you are required to discuss an assignment with me, please contact me at the beginning of the week.

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Informality (including an occasional emoticon) is fine for non-academic topics. Please remember that all writing is meant to be read by someone else, or you at a later time. Bad, sloppy writing is a sign of disrespect to the instructor and to fellow students.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across well online. Disagreeing with someone by making negative, insulting comments is not using your sociological imagination.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.

Other course policies

Policies for this online course

- Quizzes and exams: You must complete the midterm and final exams yourself, without any external help or communication. Some weekly quizzes are included as self-checks without points attached.
- Written assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work. In formal assignments, you should follow APA style to cite the ideas and words of your research sources. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in--but no one else should revise or rewrite your work.

- Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Falsifying research or results: All research you will conduct in this course is intended to be a learning experience; you should never feel tempted to make your results or your library research look more successful than it was.
- Collaboration and informal peer-review: The course includes many opportunities for formal collaboration with your classmates. While study groups and peer-review of major written projects is encouraged, remember that comparing answers on a quiz or assignment is not permitted. If you're unsure about a particular situation, please feel free just to ask ahead of time.

Ohio State's academic integrity policy

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute "Academic Misconduct."

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: "Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University, or subvert the educational process." Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an "excuse" for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University.

If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

Accessibility accommodations for students with disabilities

Requesting accommodations

If you would like to request academic accommodations based on the impact of a disability qualified under the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, contact your instructor privately as soon as possible to discuss your specific needs. Discussions are confidential.

In addition to contacting the instructor, please contact the Student Life Disability Services at 614-292-3307 or ods@osu.edu to register for services and/or to coordinate any accommodations you might need in your courses at The Ohio State University.

Go to <http://ods.osu.edu> for more information.

Accessibility of course technology

This online course requires use of Carmen (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor.

Statement on Title IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu
