Dear Professor Ellawadi,

On Wednesday, November 16th, the ASCC SBS Panel reviewed the proposal for SHS 7825. I am happy to report that the proposal was unanimously approved.

One recommendation from the Panel: make it clear in the syllabus if the textbook identified for background reading will be made available to students or if students are expected to purchase the textbook for this course, since one or more of the required readings in the syllabus comes from one or more volumes of the textbook.

The course will now continue through the approval process.

Best Wishes,
Danielle
