Dear Colleague:

The Department of Economics is creating a new course titled Neuroeconomics (Econ 5870) for our undergraduate students. This course will have Econ 4001 (intermediate microeconomic theory) and Econ 3400, Stat 1450 or Stat 2450 (introductory statistics) as prerequisites. Currently there is not a neuroeconomics course in the economics curriculum. We have offered this course under the group studies course number with high enrollment and we are now formalizing this as a regular course offering. I am attaching the course proposal and syllabus, and requesting the support of your unit for this course. Your support can be submitted via email or by returning the attached concurrence form by July 25th.

If you have any questions I would be happy to talk with you about this course proposal. Thanks!

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
