Dear Professor Prinz,

On Tuesday, October 25, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal for a new freshman seminar "The Short Story in the Twentieth-Century."

I am happy to report that the Panel approved the course with two contingencies:

- Request to flesh out schedule and give information about oral report.
- This course should either be letter graded or S/U (not pass/fail, which is different). If the seminar is letter graded, the number will be 1137.xx. On the other hand, an S/U freshman seminar would be numbered 1138.xx.

Should you have any questions, I encourage you to contact Janice Aski (faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel; cc'd here), or me.

Please feel free to send a revised syllabus to me, and I will then submit it for final approval.

My best,
Bernadette

PS: Please also note that the Office of Student Life Disability Services has moved and the College's preferred statement is now, "Students with disabilities (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions) that have been certified by the Office of Student Life Disability Services will be appropriately accommodated and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs. The Office of Student Life Disability Services is located in 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue; telephone 614-292-3307, slds@osu.edu; slds.osu.edu." The updated statement should be used on the syllabus.
