Der Bernadette,

Thanks! I touched base with the relevant parties and they responded: "The student should check with the instructor(s), but we are confident that no two instances of this course will be the same. There is plenty of interesting material, and more keeps developing all the time." They also emphasized that the course isn't offered very often.

I hope that answers the question.

Thanks very much!
Piers

Dear Piers and Julie,

On Friday, February 3, the Arts and Humanities 2 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee considered a proposal to make Philosophy 5610 and Linguistics 5410 repeatable.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with the following question: How will a student know ahead of time that the second iteration he/she wants to take is different from the first iteration?

I will wait for your response before we advance the courses.

If you have any questions about this feedback, please feel free to contact Richard Fletcher (faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 2 Panel; cc'd here).

My best,
Bernadette
