Dear Rob,

On Friday, March 10, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reconsidered a proposal to add GE Historical Study to Public Affairs 2500.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one contingency and one recommendation:

- Contingency: Please provide a GE assessment plan. The assessment plan provided is not specific to GE Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs). Assessing students is not the same as GE assessment. See pp. 51-53 in ASC Curriculum and Assessment Operations Manual https://asccas.osu.edu/sites/asccas.osu.edu/files/ASC_CurrAssess_Operations_Manual.pdf

Recommendation: The panel recommends making primary sources stand out more in the syllabus and making sure that students understand the importance of primary sources.

I will return Public Affairs 2500 to the initiator queue in curriculum.osu.edu to enable the John Glenn College to address the contingency of the Panel.

Should you have any questions about this feedback, do not hesitate to contact Janice Aski, Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel, or me.

My best,
Bernadette
