Dear Pedro and Rachel,

On Tuesday, December 5, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course change for Spanish 2202.01 and a new course request for Spanish 2213.

The Panel unanimously approved both 2202.01 and 2213 with a couple of questions:

- For both course requests, the panel wonders whether the prerequisites and exclusions are indeed not to be electronically enforced, or whether that is a mistake on the form in curriculum.osu.edu.
- For 2213, the exclusions on the form in curriculum.osu.edu include the following sentence, "Not open to non-native or non-heritage speakers of Spanish through regular course enrollment or EM credit." What about native speakers of Spanish? They are probably not allowed to take the course either, are they? Should the exclusions be changed to also include native speakers of Spanish (in addition to non-native speakers and non-heritage speakers)?

I will keep both courses in the office queue until we receive an answer to those two questions.

Furthermore, the Panel also had a couple of comments about the syllabus for 2213 (to be considered when the course is first taught):

- Recommendation to further define attendance policy. Be more specific.
- What is meant by service learning log in that section of the syllabus? The rest of the syllabus does not refer to a service learning log and there does not seem to be a service learning experience included in the course.

Should you have any questions about this feedback, do not hesitate to contact Janice Aski (faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel; cc'd here), or me.

My best,
Bernadette
