Dear George and Michael,

On Wednesday, January 17, the Arts and Humanities 2 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal to revise the Art MFA.

I am pleased to inform you that the Panel unanimously approved the proposed revision.

So that means that the proposal will now advance to the full ASC Curriculum Committee (ASCC). The next meeting of the ASCC is scheduled for Friday, February 2, 8:30-10:30AM, 385 Bricker Hall. The agenda for the meeting has not yet been decided and for that matter it is too early to know for sure whether we will have that meeting—as every now and then when there are not many agenda items the Chair of the Committee prefers to skip a meeting to have a more substantial meeting two weeks later. At any rate I should know by the end of the week whether or not we will have the February 2 ASCC meeting. In the meantime, could you both (or one of you) please pencil in that date/time? Indeed, you will be invited to the meeting to answer any questions that the committee might have about the proposal. Also, if you think you would like to bring someone else with you (e.g., a faculty member who has been equally involved in the revision to the Art MFA), that will be possible. We can finalize all this once we know more about the possible February 2 ASCC meeting. So for now this is just an fyi and I will be back in touch sometime on Friday when I know more.

Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact Shari Savage (faculty Chair of the A&H2 Panel on 1-17-18; cc'd here) or me.

My best,
Bernadette
