GE Goals

Students demonstrate skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and appreciate other cultures and patterns of thought.

GE Expected Learning Outcomes

1. Students employ communicative skills (e.g. speaking, listening, reading, and/or writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students describe and analyze the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students compare and contrast the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying with their own.

Course description

Italian 1103.61 is an online Individualized Instruction version of the classroom course for Italian 1103.01. Italian Individualized Instruction is a self-paced, mastery-based program that is designed to mirror the courses offered in the classroom.

One complete course is four credits but unlike the classroom, you can complete four credits in one semester or spread them out over more semesters.

You will complete the majority of your learning on your own by completing the work described in the weekly syllabus, but you will make mandatory online appointments with your instructor as indicated on the weekly syllabus.

You are in charge of your learning in that you decide how many credits you would like to take in a given term, schedule appointment times and decide when you are ready to take tests.

The amount of work that you complete in your course depends on the number of credit hours that you are taking. Each credit hour corresponds to a given amount of work; there are 4 units if taking all 4 credit hours.

Units	Avanti! chapters
Unit 1 (1 credit hour)	Chapters 11 & 12
Unit 2 (1 credit hour)	Chapter 13
Unit 3 (1 credit hour)	Chapter 14
Unit 4 (1 credit hour)	Chapters 15 & 16

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of 4 units of Italian 1103.61, you should be able to:

- understand brief discussions by native speakers on familiar topics and presentations by the instructor on Italian culture with frequent explanations/clarifications
- read and understand short authentic texts, such as magazine articles
- engage in brief conversations with native speakers who are sympathetic to the communicative needs of foreign language learners
- write essays on topics related to readings or material used in class using the structures and vocabulary you have learned in both 1101, 1102 and 1103
- demonstrate a broad understanding of a variety of topics related to Italian culture, society, and history and be able to compare and contrast them to features of your own culture

Grading and Normal Progress

Course evaluation:

Online meetings	15%
Quiz	30%
Homework: Connect, TalkAbroad	45%
Oral exam	10%

Grading scale:

93–100: A	87–89.9: B+	80–82.9: B-
90–92.9: A-	83–86.9: B	79.9 or below: E

ONLINE MEETINGS: Online appointments with your instructor are mandatory and must be scheduled on Acuity at <https://iilc.as.me/>. Click on Italian to schedule a meeting with your instructor. Appointments will be conducted in Italian; English is allowed only during the last 5 minutes of each meeting and at the initial orientation meeting.

Meetings will take place on Carmen Connect or Skype and the duration of each meeting is shown on the weekly syllabus. At each meeting there will be a discussion of grammar and vocabulary, conversation practice, development of cultural competency and discussion of the next meeting time. These meetings are the equivalent of a class, so do not miss any meetings. However, unlike the classroom course, you can reschedule a meeting once due to illness or other serious conflict for which you have documentation. Please notify instructor of any changes to the schedule by email. You will receive a zero if you miss a meeting after rescheduling it once.

ONLINE QUIZZES: You will take quizzes online on Connect (connect.mheducation.com.) During the entire quiz you and your surroundings will be video-recorded via webcam and a screenshot of your computer screen will be captured by the Tegrity proctoring system. Your instructor will be able to review all recordings afterwards. See the Appendix for details.

You can take the quiz after you completed the assigned homework, TalkAbroad session, self-test and mandatory meetings. All work must be completed at the 80% or above level, and you have three chances to score 80% or above on a quiz. If you do not achieve at least 80% by the third attempt, we will ask you to drop the course to avoid receiving an E. Attempts must be taken with at least one day in-between attempts.

If you score 80% and you want to improve your score, you may take the second and third quizzes, with at least one day in-between attempts, and receive the highest score.

HOMEWORK: You must complete all the assigned online homework indicated on the weekly syllabus with a score of 80% or above before meeting with your instructor. Translators are strictly forbidden. You may only use an online dictionary such as wordreference.com to query one word at a time but not phrases, sentences or paragraphs. No proof-reading by native speakers, friends or tutors is allowed. Be aware that your instructor has extensive teaching experience and can tell immediately if a student is cheating by using these means of support. In this case your instructor will have you redo the assignment while being proctored. If it happens again, you will be reported to COAM.

If you are suspected of using a translator or outside sources of assistance during an exam, you will be reported to COAM.

- Connect assignments are on connect.mheducation.com. The Section Web Address needed to register for your specific section will be posted on Carmen. See the Appendix for details. A Self-test will be part of homework and it will let you test your knowledge before taking the quiz, as well as practice using the Tegrity video-proctoring system.

- One TalkAbroad session per unit is required. The conversation with a native speaker will be 10 minutes in duration and take place through www.talkabroad.com at the cost of $7.50 per conversation. Sessions are intended as preparation for the oral exam, the topics for the conversation will be specified by your instructor on the TalkAbroad site and must be completed before taking the quiz. See the Appendix for details.

ORAL EXAM: Each oral exam will be 5-8 minutes long. Instructions for each exam will be posted on Carmen.

Adding/dropping credits

The number of credits you are registered for can be increased or reduced only with the instructor's permission or your advisor's approval. During Contract week (week 10) you can make changes to the number of credits you are enrolled for. You can find the adjustment form at https://cllc.osu.edu/sites/cllc.osu.edu/files/ii_adjustto2022_4.pdf. The form must be signed and scanned to your instructor's email. After your instructor signs it, you must take it to your College's office for processing.

APPENDIX

Connect homework

All videos and the online workbook are on connect.mheducation.com. You need the Connect Access Code (purchased with your Avanti book or online) and the Section Web Address (provided on Carmen) in order to sign up to your section. You need a microphone and a webcam to complete activities in Connect, if your computer does not come with them.

Technical problems: After using different browsers or computers, updating Java, allowing pop-ups and consulting the troubleshooting handout on Carmen, if you are having technical problems related to your account, recording or computer issues, call (800) 331-5094, use the live chat line or visit www.mhhe.com/support

Be sure to complete ALL items in ALL the Connect activities before you take your quiz. If there are any unanswered items, any activities that are completely blank, or if incomprehensible responses are given for open-ended questions, points will be deducted accordingly. You will have three attempts to complete each assignment. After you have finished and submitted your first and second attempt, your score and any errors will be indicated. After your last attempt, the correct answers are displayed for all items. We strongly recommend that you go over the correct answers. Remember: practice makes perfect! especially when learning a foreign language.

TalkAbroad sessions

A TalkAbroad section code for your specific session will be posted on Carmen. Your instructor will provide the prompts for your conversation with a native speaker. You first will need to create a free TalkAbroad account, join the specific class section shown on Carmen, and purchase a conversation. Then you will choose a TalkAbroad conversation partner and select a date and time from his/her online schedule. [Note: In order to ensure a full 10 minutes to complete your conversation, it is critical that you are set up and ready to begin your scheduled appointment on time. Partners have appointments every 10 minutes and need to begin and end conversations on time, even if a student arrives late.] Your conversation will be recorded and photographed automatically, and the audio file will be available to you for review in your TalkAbroad account. Your instructor will access your recording, photograph, and time log through TalkAbroad.

Creating an account: To create an account you need to access the TalkAbroad website located at www.talkabroad.com. Find the link labeled "Get Started Now" or "Register Now". You may also access the registration page by clicking "login" and "Create new student account". It is important that you pay close attention when you register. An error will cause problems when connecting with a conversation partner in the future.

Common registration errors: Please be sure to double check your registration form before continuing. You can always make changes to your information by going to Manage Account on your homepage.

Email address: All confirmation emails will be sent here.

Time zone: Your conversation partner will likely be in a different time zone than you. This is used to calculate the correct time for your partner to call you.

If any of this data is incorrect you will likely experience problems when completing your assignments.

Joining your class section: Upon registering you will be prompted to enter your section code (see Carmen) and register for the correct class. It is important that you register for your section rather than click the link "I am studying outside of a formal class." If you are not registered for the correct section your professor will be unable to view or grade your completed conversations.

Click "Purchase Credits" and enter your credit card details. Select the language and the number of credits you desire to purchase. In this class you will purchase 2. Click "Select." After viewing the total payment click "Confirm Payment." Your credit card will be charged and your account credited.

From your homepage, click "Make Reservation." Take time to look at the conversation partners' profiles that include information such as their favorite movies and interests. Once you have selected a partner, take a look at his or her calendar. All times will be displayed in the time zone you selected when registering. Choose a time and confirm on the following page. Input your cell phone number if you would like to receive a text message reminder. Conversations may be canceled up to 12 hours prior to the scheduled time.

Setting up Tegrity to record online quizzes:

1. Click on 'Go to Lectures' from the Tegrity widget for their Connect section
2. Click on Course Tasks (left side).
3. Select Start a Test
4. You will receive a popup if the instructor has enabled the 'Show course testing policy when students start tests' option
5. If this is the first time you are using this feature, you will need to accept and run the TegRunner.exe install file
6. After the installation is complete you will see the Tegrity Recorder panel; use the tests in this panel to ensure hardware is functioning correctly
7. For your image, you should then display identification to the webcam to prove identity
8. Click Record

9. You will then access the exam through Connect, with the recording working in the background while they answer their questions

Once the exam is complete, you will need to click the Stop button in the Tegrity Recorder and choose to Upload the video in the background

A note from the directors of the Italian Language Program:

Welcome to Italian 1103, the third course in the language sequence 1101-1103. In this course you will continue to develop your abilities to speak, write, read, and understand Italian. As in Italian 1101 and 1102, your instructor will make every effort to speak exclusively in Italian and you will be expected to do the same. Your instructor will use hand gestures, facial expressions, and visuals to help make concepts clear. If, however, you are having difficulty understanding or following along, use the Italian expressions at the beginning of your textbook to ask questions or ask for clarification.

Here are more helpful hints: 1) Read the syllabus carefully and understand the expectations of the course. Also, before leaving class make sure that you understand the homework assignment for the day. If you have questions, ask your instructor. The computer platform that we are using (Connect Plus) keeps track of your assignments and will deduct points for missing assignments. Your assignments must be completed by the deadline. The computer will not allow you to access assignments after the deadline has passed. 2) Read the pages indicated on the syllabus that will be covered in class before coming to class. This will help you follow along. 3) Use Italian whenever possible. You will not learn the language without using it!

We are sure that you will continue to find your Italian courses interesting, engaging, and fun! For those who are interested in developing their language skills beyond the 1100-level, information about the Italian major and minor are included at the end of this syllabus. Now is also the time to start thinking about studying Italian in Italy. Information about the OSU study abroad programs is also included with this syllabus. If you would like to practice your Italian outside of the classroom, check out our website (<http://frit.osu.edu/>) for the schedule of activities planned for Fall and Spring semester by the Italian Club (under Student Clubs), free tutoring and conversation times made available by our instructors.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the Italian program, we wish you a wonderful semester! If at any time you have any questions, comments, or concerns, feel free to contact the Director of the Italian Language Program, Prof. Janice M. Aski (aski.1@osu.edu) or the Assistant Director of the Italian Elementary Language Program, Ms. Carla Onorato (onorato.carla@gmail.com). Buon proseguimento!

GE Goals: Students demonstrate skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and appreciate other cultures and patterns of thought.

GE Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students employ communicative skills (e.g. speaking, listening, reading, and/or writing) in a language other than their native language.

2. Students describe and analyze the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students compare and contrast the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying with their own.

Course Enrollment: All students must be officially enrolled in the course by the end of the second full week of the semester. Enrolling officially and on time is solely the responsibility of the student. Summer: the course must be added by the fifth lesson.

Course objectives

Italian 1103 is the third course of a sequence (1101, 1102, 1103) that leads to fulfillment of the general education requirement (GE) for the Foreign Language category. The Italian elementary language sequence is designed for students who wish to develop the skills necessary to interact in the language and learn about Italian contemporary culture and society as well as Italy's rich history. This course satisfies the expected learning outcomes for the GE as you continue to refine your speaking skills by completing tasks with your classmates in pairs and small groups and by following models of native speakers presented on video. You will develop reading and writing skills by reading increasingly more elaborate authentic texts and writing related, reaction essays, and your listening skills will be cultivated by completing on-line listening activities, viewing and analyzing short clips from Italian movies, and listening to short lectures on topics in Italian culture, society, and history, such as Pompeii, the contemporary demographic profile of Italy, the history of the language, and of the unification of Italy. As in the previous courses, you will compare and contrast Italian culture with your own.

At the end of Italian 1103 you should be able to:

- understand brief discussions by native speakers on familiar topics and presentations by the instructor on Italian culture with frequent explanations/clarifications
- read and understand short authentic texts, such as magazine articles
- engage in brief conversations with native speakers who are sympathetic to the communicative needs of foreign language learners
- write essays on topics related to readings or material used in class using the structures and vocabulary you have learned in both 1101, 1102 and 1103
- demonstrate a broad understanding of a variety of topics related to Italian culture, society, and history and be able to compare and contrast them to features of your own culture

Policy on Attendance and Chronic Tardiness:

Daily class attendance is crucial for the development of your language skills and therefore for success in this course. Regular attendance is expected.

Absences will be closely monitored and fall into three categories: “grace sessions”, excused absences, and unexcused absences. Any unexcused absence will negatively affect your final course grade at the end of the semester, as explained below.

Please keep a personal record of your absences and tardies.

Over the course of the semester, you will be allowed four (4) “grace sessions” (equivalent to one (1) week of class) without the need for official documentation. These days should not be interpreted as free days! Use them wisely! They should be reserved for foreseeable or unforeseeable events and emergencies, including illness for which medical attention is not sought.

Note: Should you be absent the day of a quiz or an exam, you must present official, documented proof of illness or of some other calamity in order to be able to make it up. Otherwise, you will receive a zero!

Any additional absences (beyond the four “grace sessions”) can be excused, if you have an acceptable, verifiable reason. In this context, “acceptable” means an illness, a death in the family (or some other significant family event, such as a wedding), a subpoena, jury duty, military service, performance in a university-sponsored athletic competition, a job interview, etc. “Verifiable” means that you can provide official, original documentation to account for the reason. Such documentation typically provides a phone number that can be called for verification.

Note: The falsification of official documents is a serious offense that will be reported to COAM. See the discussion on Academic Misconduct.

Examples include a doctor’s note (on original letterhead paper; in general, photocopies and faxes will not be accepted), a dated container of medication, an original program from a wedding, a written call to service from a court of law or other government institution, a note from a university athletic division, etc. Personal notes from friends or relatives will not be accepted as official documentation. Documentation intended to excuse an absence should be presented to your instructor (and, if necessary, to the Language Program Director and/or Assistant Language Program Director) as soon as possible. No documentation will be accepted after Reading Day.

Any additional absences (beyond the “grace sessions” and any excused absences) will be considered unexcused.

Furthermore, extreme tardiness can accumulate into unexcused absences. A late arrival to class of 10 minutes or more on three (3) different class days will be counted as one (1) unexcused absence from class.

Each unexcused absence will result in the lowering of your final course grade by 1% at the end of the semester. For example, if your overall grade is 92% (A-) and you have three (3) unexcused absences (beyond the “grace sessions” and any excused absences), your final assigned course grade will be 89% (B+) [i.e., $92\% - 3\% = 89\%$].

Attendance policy starts the second week of school.

Excessive Absences: Students with 16 or more total absences will not receive a passing grade regardless of the reasons for the absences (grace days, excused, unexcused) since in-class communicative activities cannot be made up. If a student has 16 or more absences and can provide valid documentation for those absences, we will support the student's petition to withdraw from the course late or to do a retroactive withdrawal. Students who find themselves in this situation should notify their academic counselor as soon as possible to explore options.

NOTE: Please keep a personal record of your absences and tardies. Canvas does not have an in-built extra credit or deduction feature, therefore points will be added and/or subtracted manually at the end of the semester, when your teacher posts the grades on Faculty Center.

The Absence Excuse Form downloaded from the “Advice Nurse” page is not accepted as a medical excuse. All medical certificates, Minute clinic and any Urgent Care excuse must be signed by the doctor, include contact info and show the exact dates you are excused for. If you have a chronic illness that may cause recurrent absences or tardiness, it must be certified and dated by a medical doctor or the Office of Student Life Disability Services.

In sum, make sure that you clearly understand the attendance and tardiness policies for this course, that you keep track of your own attendance and tardiness records, that you present documentation and excuses no later than Reading day and that you make wise decisions regarding if and when you miss class.

Quizzes: There are five quizzes (each approximately 30 minutes in length) in this course. They will cover Strategie, Lessico, Strutture and Cultura. The Cultura section of the quiz will include questions from Ascoltiamo!, Leggiamo!, Un po' di cultura, Regioni d'Italia, Cultura a confronto, Retro and all culture activities. You cannot use a dictionary for the quiz. Do not miss the quizzes. You will only be allowed a make-up if you contact your instructor beforehand and provide a valid written excuse. Any make-ups will be scheduled at the convenience of your instructor. A missed quiz without prior notification or a medical excuse will count as a zero.

Temini (writing assignments): Temini are considered practice for the final exam, which tests the reading and writing skills that you have developed over the entire semester (see Final Exam below), therefore the grade is part of your homework grade. The grade for the first 3 temini is based on the quality of the first draft and the final, corrected version. The grade will be assigned to the corrected version. The last 2 temini will have only one draft, no rewrite. Compositions are graded based on the following rubric:

Content (1-6 points)
5-6: content well-developed with points elaborated and examples where appropriate
3-4: minimum amount of information necessary to meet instructions
1-2: little information conveyed, sketchy presentation
Comprehensibility (1-6 points)
5-6: easily understood
3-4: understood with some effort
1-2: incomprehensible or understood only with great effort
Vocabulary (1-6 points)
5-6: accurate use of a wide variety of words (for this level)
3-4: accurate use of a restricted, but adequate number of words
1-2: inaccurate word choice or repetitive word use
Length (1-2 points)
2: length requirement was observed
1: length requirement was less than requested

Final Exam: The final exam will test the abilities to read and write in Italian that you will work on during the semester. You will be given two readings with comprehension activities that are similar to the readings in your text and workbook/laboratory manual. There will be two compositions. For the final exam only, you will be allowed to consult a paper dictionary during the exam. Online dictionaries are not allowed. The date of the final exam is in the Master Schedule. The date and time of your final exam are determined by the university and cannot be changed. You should not have any conflicts with exams in other courses.

Homework: Activities will be assigned from the Connect website (connect.mheducation.com). Follow the instructions on your syllabus carefully and pay attention to location and deadline of each assignment. After the first few days, assignments are often due by the next class. NOTE: you may use an online dictionary to look up one word at a time, but you may not use a translator to translate a series of words, an entire sentence or a paragraph. If you do not understand the difference between a dictionary and a translator, ask your instructor before completing your assignment.

You can access the Connect activities by going to connect.mheducation.com and logging in with the ConnectPlus code and the Section Web Address provided by your instructor on the first day of class. For each chapter you will complete the practice activities in the ConnectPlus online workbook.

Be sure to complete ALL items in ALL the Connect activities. If there are any unanswered items, any activities that are completely blank, or if incomprehensible responses are given for open-ended questions, points will be deducted accordingly. You will have three attempts to complete each assignment. After you have finished and submitted your first and second attempt, your score and any errors will be indicated. After your last attempt, the correct answers are displayed for all items. We strongly recommend that you go over the correct answers. Remember: Practice makes perfect! especially when learning a foreign language.

Scriviamo (writing assignments): essays must be handed in on paper. No translator is allowed. Grades will be assigned based on the following rubric:

- Great 18-20 points (shows good effort at content and vocabulary, length is appropriate)
- Good 16-18 points (shows fair effort at content and vocabulary, length is appropriate)
- Poor 14-15 points (shows little effort at content and vocabulary and/or is too short)

Review: additional practice exercises can be found at radiodante.it and <http://www.dienneti.it/italiano/stranieri.htm>

A special note about all video activities. There are a variety of activities that require you to watch a video and answer comprehension questions (Strategie, Grammatica dal vivo, Il blog di..., Ascoltiamo). Here are some tips for completing these activities:

- 1) Do NOT think that you have to understand every word in the video. Have a look at the comprehension questions and then listen for the gist.
- 2) Expect to watch videos a MINIMUM of three times, but you will most likely have to watch more to be able to respond to the questions.
- 3) Watch the first time to get a sense of what is being talked about. The next times you watch, stop the video at strategic points and replay what you watched to focus on difficult segments.
- 4) Don't get stressed. The videos are fun and interesting if you don't worry about understanding every word.

A special note about all reading activities. There are a variety of activities that ask you to read extended text in Italian and answer comprehension questions (Leggiamo! and Retro). Here are some tips for completing these activities:

- 1) Do NOT think that you have to understand every word in the reading. Have a look at the comprehension questions and then read for the gist.
- 2) Read the first time through just to get the gist. When you read the second and third time, read a short section at a time and make sure you understand the main idea before moving on to the next segment.

- 3) Expect to read the texts a MINIMUM of three times, but you will most likely need to read more times to be able to answer the questions.
- 4) Don't get stressed. The videos are fun and interesting if you don't worry about understanding every word.

Use of Italian in class. Students are expected to use Italian in class when speaking with the instructor or their classmates. To this end, helpful phrases are included in the cover of the book to facilitate the formation of common questions and statements. In addition, the following game starts around the second week of the semester.

Parliamo italiano!* game

Every day there will be two boxes on the board: Inglese and Italiano. Every time the instructor hears English, a point will be written in the Inglese box. Every time the instructor hears very good Italian or Italian that is not required (for example, chatting about the weekend), the instructor will put a point in the Italiano box. At the end of the class period, the points in the Inglese box will be subtracted from the points in the Italiano box. The running totals will be kept each day and for each time the total reaches 50 points, everyone's grades will be raised by 1% at semester's end. English is permitted for clarification during the last five minutes of class. (Adapted from: López-Burton, Norma and Denise Minor. 2014. On being a language teacher: A personal and practical guide to success. Yale: Yale University Press.)

Oral exams: During the last week of classes, students will perform one short (8-minute) dialogue with their partner for the instructor. On the day indicated on the syllabus, students will be assigned a partner and will select an exam time. Exams will be given in class or at office hours at an appointed time. You will perform it in front of the instructor, not the entire class. The structure of the exam is as follows:

- Each pair of students will select one of the following topics randomly (from a hat) to perform in front of the instructor. The rest of the class waits their turn outside of the classroom.

1. Two friends meet after the summer, they have not seen each other for two months and talk about what they did over the summer months. They ask each other questions to get more information about their activities, sports they played and trips they took. At the end of the conversation they make plans to do something together the following weekend.

2. A College student has to write an article for the College newspaper about his/her favorite professor. The student interviews the professor and asks about his/her education, degrees, career, family and hobbies. (Hint: Remember that formal form of address is required)

3. Two old childhood friends meet after 20 years. They ask each other how and what they are doing now, and then they reminisce about their childhood. They talk about what they used to do together, how they spent their free time, which games they used to play and what they liked to do. (Hint: Use imperfect when actions are repeated in the past or talking about childhood likes and dislikes. Ex.: Mi piaceva giocare a calcio tutti i giorni)

- Both participants must ask and answer questions and have roughly equal speaking time.
- Students will be awarded points (out of 50) based on the following rubric:

Comprehensibility:	0-10
Preparedness:	0-10
Vocabulary (accuracy and appropriateness)	0-10
Fluency (smoothness of speech)	0-10
Pronunciation (Italian-like ‘accent’)	0-10

Note: Each performance is graded individually. Your grade has nothing to do with the quality of your partner’s contribution.

How to prepare for your oral exam: Practice all the scenarios with a partner outside of class. Listen to what your partner says and respond appropriately. Keep the conversation flowing and do not use any English. You will not be allowed to use notes at the exam, so practice responding spontaneously (and appropriately) to your partner.

Extra credit opportunities: 1) 15-minute conversation sessions with our instructors will be available for extra credit or to practice speaking. The sessions are on a first-come first-served basis and only one is allowed per day. Every 3 sessions you earn 1% more on your overall grade, up to a maximum of 3%. The last 3 weeks of classes are usually in high demand, please plan accordingly. 2) During the semester we will offer some departmental events that will count as one conversation session. 3) Participating in the class game Parliamo italiano! can also earn 1% more on the overall grade for the whole class each time 50 points are earned in class.

Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Academic Integrity Statement

Students enrolled in courses at The Ohio State University are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic conduct. All suspected cases of misconduct will be reported to the Committee on Academic Misconduct as required by University rules. Examples of academic misconduct in this course include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Copying work or otherwise turning in written work that is not original to you. Cheating in this case applies both to the copier and the person who allows his or her work to be copied.
- Having someone else do or write your assignments for you. Use of any kind of dictionary or translator (like Google, Yahoo, etc.) during exams is strictly prohibited.
- Having anyone other than your instructor help you with your compositions or presentations. Tutors may answer questions about assignments from the workbook or textbook, but they may not help with compositions or presentations.
- Receiving or passing exam information to other students before, during or after the exam. Cheating in this case applies both to the receiver of the exam information and the person who gives the information.
- Alteration of university forms used to drop or add courses to a program, or unauthorized use of those forms including the forging of signatures.
- Use of any unauthorized aids on exams (e.g., cheat sheets, textbook, etc) is strictly prohibited.

Sexual misconduct / relationship violence

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Diversity

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Counseling and Mental Health Services

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766.

CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24-hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

Collegiate Recovery Community

The CRC supports students who are in recovery or seeking recovery from drug and alcohol addiction. It is a supportive peer community on campus that helps students to have an authentic college experience while maintaining their recovery. 7. A minimum grade of C- is required in any course for it to count toward the major or minor.
8. Students bring their major form to Prof. Janice M. Aski (aski.1@osu.edu, 214 HH) for final approval. As part of the procedures for assessment of the major program, during that meeting, students will complete a survey for graduating majors, which they submit to the office of the Department of French and Italian (200 HH). A random selection of students may be asked to volunteer to take an on-line proficiency test for program assessment purposes.

Transfer credit policy:

If you are transferring credit from another institution, you must have on the major program at least half of the semester credit hours earned at The Ohio State University. Your major program/department advisor, the chairperson of the department concerned, and the executive assistant dean in Arts and Sciences Advising must approve any request for a variation in this policy. (revised 5-18-2015)

Undergraduate Minor in Italian Program requirements and list of courses

Students interested in a minor in Italian are asked to contact one of the advisors in Hagerty Hall, Room 355 for information about the minor. Students should also file the Minor form with their college office.

The minor in Italian consists of 15 hours of course work beyond 1103 or 5101. All courses are three credits unless otherwise indicated.

Italian minors must take four courses taught in the Italian language. These courses must include Italian 2102 or a 3000-level course, and at least one 4000-level or above course taught in Italian. In addition, students take one course taught in English in the Department of French and Italian.

Up to 6 credits of 3798.01, 3798.02 or 5797 may be counted toward the minor. However, all minors must take 2102 or one 3000-level course, and at least one 4000-level or above course taught in Italian.

Up to 3 credits of any combination of 2193, 2194, or 5193 and up to 6 credits of 5194 may be counted toward the minor provided that they are taught in the Italian language. Up to 3 credits of 4998 (or 4998H) may be counted toward the minor provided that the research is in the Italian language.

If you complete the minor following these guidelines, you need only file your Minor Program Form with your college office. Any variation from the program described here needs the approval of the appropriate advisor in the Department of French and Italian or one of the advisors in Hagerty Hall, Room 355.

Romance Studies Major

A new OSU interdepartmental program, a major in Romance Studies, is available for students who seek significant cultural awareness in one country along with an understanding of two other languages and foreign cultures. The languages included are: French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Romanian and Latin. To satisfy the major, students select a primary, a secondary and a tertiary language field, each in a different Romance language or Latin. Their courses will fall into a 'track' or disciplinary focus in either language/linguistics or literature/culture depending upon the course offerings in the department of their primary field. Depending on a student's language background, sufficient time may be available in the academic schedule for a related major/minor (e.g., Communications, International St.) All students with a Romance Studies specialization are required to spend at least one summer abroad immersed in a foreign environment.
